GOVERNMENT INTERESTED IN PROBE

FEDERAL ATTORNEY ASSUMES INTEREST IN JUSTICE CASES

Linndale Village Officials Quizzed By Prosecutor

By United Press
CLEVELAND, O., Apr. 2.—Federal District Attorney A. E. Bernstein's sudden interest in the justice of peace probe, begun here two weeks ago by County Prosecutor Edward Stanton, gave indications today that several federal indictments may result.

Maurice J. Meyer, assistant prosecutor, has conferred with Bernstein, outlining the alleged irregularities uncovered since the investigation was opened.

Court records of three justices probably will be turned over to the district attorney at once.

Harry E. Dorsey, Mayor of Linndale, and Thomas O'Malia, Linndale marshal, were questioned at length by Meyer and two detectives. All dockets and liquor search warrants issued by the Linndale court were turned over to the prosecutor's office.

Dorsey admitted issuing warrants for the search of private homes, but maintained that sufficient evidence of law violations had been obtained, Stanton said.

Books from the courts of Justice Basil Ayer, Mayfield Heights and C. H. Phillips, Independence, are yet to be brought in. Both men, according to Stanton, have promised to bring them in, but thus far have failed to do so.

Grand Jury subpoenas will be issued for the two if the books are not in Monday, according to Stanton.

In inviting the prosecutor to submit his findings, Bernstein offered all assistance the federal government can give in cleaning up village courts.

Charges that protection has been sold to bootleggers, that violators have been freed after arrest for money considerations and that other irregularities have been practiced will be thoroughly investigated, Mayor said, following his conference with Bernstein.

BANDIT TO SERVE TEN YEARS IN PEN

BELLEFONTAINE, O., April 2.—Irvin Cortney, 22, Toledo, must serve ten years in the state penitentiary for burglarizing the Huffman General Store at West Mansfield. This sentence was imposed after Cortney pleaded guilty.

Police today still were searching for Cortney's companion who shot and wounded Marshall Fay Middlesworth of West Mansfield when the officer surprised the pair looting the store.

Authorities have definitely discarded the theory that either Cortney or his companion may have been responsible for the death of night patrolman Benje of Franklin who was shot and killed when he attempted to frustrate a holdup.

CONVICTS RECEIVE COMMUNION AT PEN

OHIO STATE PENITENTIARY, COLUMBUS, O., Apr. 2.—Seven hundred convicts left their work behind the prison walls today and commemorated Good Friday by receiving Holy Communion.

The sacrament was administered by Chaplain T. O. Read and the Rev. David L. Barre, of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Many of the convicts were converted and baptized during the winter months, Rev. Barre said.

WILL CLOSE MINES

Albasin, commissioner of the Pittsburgh Vein Operators Association here. No reason was given by Albasin. The shut down effects 650 men. It was expected that other mines of the company will be put to work to handle the company's business while the two are idle.

SAVED BY BOTTLE

ALLIANCE, O., April 2.—A civil suit over a milk bottle is holding up the trial of Mike Lica on a charge of possessing rum. Police raided Lica's place and seized the bottle, said to contain liquor.

Before the criminal trial could get under way, Lica entered a civil suit against Police Chief W. D. Colvin to obtain possession of the milk bottle.

The evidence is in the hands of court bailiff Taylor who refuses to loan it to court for the liquor hearing.

THREE INVESTIGATIONS CHECK UP ON MILLIONAIRE GOD FATHER

Browning Faces Separate Probes of his Conduct with Young Girl—Father Has No Objection To Her Marriage

NEW YORK, Apr. 2.—(UP)—Edward W. Browning's latest experience as a "Daddy" has precipitated at least three official or semi-official investigations and the returns are as yet incomplete.

Authorities at the high school where 15-year-old Frances Heenan is enrolled, appear somewhat anxious to find out why the girl has not attended classes since last fall.

It is probable that as soon as Frances has recovered from acid burns on her face, inflicted last Saturday by some person unknown, she will be called upon to explain why she played "hooky."

Then too, the police are interested in the acid throwing, which occurred while Frances was asleep. Detectives are inclined to the jealousy theory, but admit that far they have been unable to find trace of any one who out of spite, might have attempted to mar the girl's beauty because of her friendship with the 57-year-old real-estate operator.

A third investigation is in the hands of the society for the prevention of cruelty to children, which is interested in the motives behind Browning's interest in Frances.

In fact Vincent Pisarra, secretary of the society, waxed indignant as he discussed the case.

"If a grey-haired man more than 50 years old," commented Pisarra, "takes a little school girl out for night rides in a Rolls-Royce and takes her to dances, all this without a proper guardian, it is time that something should be done about it.

"What is it that induces a man of his age to describe a little girl's hair, her eyes and her figure? At least he is indiscreet."

Pisarra, also intends to inquire into the high school sorority of Phi Lambda Tau, of which Browning was a patron and Miss Heenan a member.

Other developments of the new "Cinderella" follow: It was learned Browning had taken the girl to a birthday party for Benjamin Gligl, Metropolitan Opera tenor, on March 20, and had taken her home alone.

William Heenan, the girl's father, an automobile salesman, told newspapermen if Browning intended to marry Frances there would be no parental objection.

Mary Louise Spas, Frances' predecessor in the realtor's attentions, said she was going to bring "some kind of suit" against the man who once adopted her and gave her cost-ly presents until he found that she was twenty-one years old, and her lawyers verified the announcement.

WOMEN IN THE DAY'S NEWS

NEW YORK.—Apparently valuing the symmetry of her legs at $100.00 an inch, Mrs. Elizabeth Gomez sued William J. Wilkinson for $50,000 alleging that because Wilkinson caused her to fall at a dance one leg will be permanently a half inch shorter than the other.

COLDER WEATHER IS HERALDING SECOND BLIZZARD OF WEEK

NEW YORK.—Another Vanderbilt was driven off Fifth Avenue when the encroaching business and apartment houses forced Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt II, to seek a new home on Park Avenue.

LONDON.—Woman's fashions are improving the health of Great Britain's women, according to Dr. C. W. Paget Moffatt, medical officer for Bolton.

"The girls of Bolton have shared to the full in this improvement," he said. "I attribute much of the improvement in their health to their lighter clothing."

PARIS.—"It is never too late to do good," hopefully murmured 103-year-old Mademoiselle Augustine Touret, as she had her hair bobbed, preparatory to celebrating her 104th birthday.

Mile. Touret admits a fondness for cards, jazz and other modern diversions.

BOARDER CHARGED WITH MURDER AFTER LANDLADY IS KILLED

PAINESVILLE, O., April 2.—A charge of first degree murder was lodged today against George War-ko, 59, who shot and killed Mrs. Annie Sabor, 34, at whose home he boarded, because "she refused to cook cabbage for my supper."

The shooting occurred in the presence of Mrs. Sabor's pariet-stricken children, the youngest of whom, Julia, was wounded by a stray bullet. The death of Mrs. Sabor, who was a widow, left the children orphans.

Warco had boarded at the Sabor home for several months, according to neighbors who summoned police when they heard the shots. The officers arrived just in time to prevent a mob seizing the enraged man.

Warco today apparently was unperturbed over the shooting and his arrest.

CONGRESS VOTES TO IMPEACH FEDERAL JUDGE OF ILLINOIS

PARTIES TO SELECT COMMITTEEMEN TO PROSECUTE JURIST

Time For Trial Of English Not Set By Leaders

By United Press
WASHINGTON, April 2.—Republican and Democratic leaders in the house expected today to reach an agreement on appointment of a committee to prosecute Federal Judge George W. English of the eastern district of Illinois, when he is called before the bar of the senate to stand trial for "high misdemeanors" in office.

After the house last night, by an overwhelming vote decided to impeach the jurist, Chairman Graham, Pennsylvania, of the judiciary committee sought to have seven members of his committee appointed to manage the case in the senate, but Minority Leader Garrett, Tennessee objected.

Whatever agreement is reached will be put in resolution form and submitted to the house Tuesday.

Just when English will stand trial is problematical. A definite decision on a date for the trial is expected after house prosecutors have conferred with the jurist.

Some senators are disposed to put pending business on the shelf and proceed with the case at once, while Majority Leader Curtis, Kansas, feels it should be postponed until the end of the session.

The closing minutes of the case in the house were punctuated with drama and tenor. As the roll call on the motion to recommit the case and the final vote on the impeachment resolution and the accompanying articles, neared completion, members grouped around the speakers rostrum. Speaker Longworth on several occasions ordered the roll call suspended until members retired to their seats.

Opponents of impeachment were caught napping when Longworth put the resolution to the house for a vote. It is planned to seek a roll call on this ballot. On a viva voce vote, Longworth announced that the "ayes seem to have it." And then after waiting for a reasonable length of time for a demand of a record vote he announced that the "ayes have it, and the resolution is agreed to."

FEMININE STYLES BATTLE MASCULINE MODES FOR FAVOR

LONDON, Apr. 2.—Second Street is a battlefield these days. The super-feminine styles are fighting the mannish tailor-mades and the public claps its hands and cries "let both sides win" as it awaits Easter day.

No women could resist a dinner suit one firm is showing. The short pleated skirt and saucy travesty of a waistcoat are expressed in salmon crepe de chine. The "dinner jacket" is in green and silver tissue, exquisitely tailored. Cuff links, pearl studs and a natty buttonhole are all amusingly masculine, but the whole gives an impression of a "daring" dress, as Susan O'Casey would say. The Mannequin admitted that she loved wearing it and nothing could be more suitable for a club or home dinner.

Fluttering rose petals seemed to compose a dress of chiffon and lined with black taffeta and coat that accompanied it—the coat de-mure and the frock a frivolous summer dream. And it seemed not strange at all that a woman should order it and smoking suit at one and the same time.

Spiritualistic Beliefs Put Lodge At Odds With Scientific Society

Royal Society, London, most famous of learned bodies, is paving the way for the resignation from membership of Sir Oliver Lodge, because of his belief in so-called spiritualism.

AMERICANS DRINKING ALCOHOL. TONIC, CAMPHOR SAY CHEMISTS

Products Contain Everything From Quinine To Arsenic They Say—None Are Fit For Human Consumption

By United Press
WASHINGTON, April 2.—Besides bootleg liquor Americans these prohibition days are drinking alcoholic flavoring extracts, bayrum, spirits of camphor, solidified alcohol, wine and liquor "tonics," Jamaica Ginger, imported "bitters," hair-tonic and toilet waters.

Some drink these straight, others attempt to eliminate harmful ingredients, ranging from quinine and arsenic to laxatives to get the potable alcoholic content, but all of these, as beverages, cannot be deemed "drinkable" under ordinary human standards," Prohibition Unit chemists told the United Press.

The government prohibition forces, spurred by protests against wide-spread publicity given to a 3.75 per cent malt extract, "beer tonic," permit, is checking up on all the alcoholic "medicines."

Dr. W. V. Doran, prohibition unit chemist and Dr. W. Linder, internal revenue chemist, in giving the list of alcoholic medicines, said the government's efforts are directed to reduce to a minimum the liquids which can be consumed straight and those which can be converted into potable alcohol.

All these liquids, containing from 3 to 90 per cent of alcohol, are reasonably cheap and easily obtained, the chemist said.

However, the seasoned Volstead accusers prefer bootleg liquors and most of the alcoholic medicines are consumed by toppers in the ultra dry territories where the moonshiner and blind tiger are non-existent, it was said.

"These tonics taste pleasant when taken in small doses," Dr. Linder said. "The medicines must be tasty or it would nauseate the 'sick' people who need it."

MRS. COOLIDGE HAS NO EASTER CLOTHES

WASHINGTON, April 2.—As far as new attire for Easter is concerned, Mrs. Calvin Coolidge simply hasn't any.

Even her shopping wasn't included in the "First lady's" activities this year and as a result she will be unable to blossom forth in a new "get-up" on Sunday.

However, no matter what the weather, Mrs. Coolidge has a plentiful supply of apparel in her wardrobe. For instance, there are three full-length coats available if April continues chilly and if the sun should shine beneficently she has a change to select from at least a dozen attractive street costumes.

Her dress most likely will be beige or white, but it might be gray or bolds de rose. Beige is her favorite color.

FAMILIES DRIVEN OUT BY FLAMES

TOLEDO, O., April 2.—One woman was overcome by smoke, a fireman was injured and thirty families were driven to the streets today when fire swept the basement of the Berkshire apartments here.

Although the blaze was confined to the basement, dense clouds of smoke filterd into the apartments above, causing the occupants to flee in panic.

Mrs. Bessie M. Wiley was trapped in her apartment and was overcome. Fireman William Rooney was injured when several bricks fell on him.

FARMERS HAD MORE GRAIN THIS YEAR

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—Ohio farmers had over three times as much corn in their cribs and 40 per cent more oats in their granaries on March 1 of this year than on March 1, 1925, figures compiled by rural economists show.

Corn on Ohio farms March 1, totaled 88,968,000 bushels, as compared with 24,985,000 bushels a year ago and an average of 58,279,000 bushels on farms March 1, for the period 1921-25. Oats on Ohio farms totaled 34,545,000 bushels March 1, as compared with 24,575,000 bushels a year ago, and an average of 20,276,000 bushels on farms March 1 for the period 1921-25.

Corn prices have been in inverse proportion to the stock on farms in March, one of the economists, W. J. Utz, pointed out.

WILMINGTON STORE KEEPER IS SUICIDE

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—Ben Roach, 50, Wilmington storekeeper shot and killed himself Wednesday night on a B. & O. passenger train plying between Wilmington and Cincinnati it became known today.

Details of the suicide were brought to Columbus by a brakeman who said Roach wrote a note to "Dusty" Miller, Wilmington newspaperman who was on the train, then walked to the washroom of his coach and shot himself.

The tenor of the missive was that Roach had been a failure in life.

"I cannot bear it any longer," he wrote. "I am unable to provide for my wife and child, the things I would like to give them."

Roach formerly was a stockman.

OHIOAN APPOINTED INVESTIGATOR FOR PHILIPPINE ISLES

Acceptance Means Cleveland Man Not To Seek Office

By United Press
WASHINGTON, April 2.—Carmel Thompson, of Ohio, national commander of the Spanish War Veterans, has been appointed by President Coolidge, to conduct an economic investigation of the Philippines. It was said in quarters close to the White House today that the investigation does not include the question of Philippine independence.

The President was said to feel that the islands are not yielding sufficient sugar, rubber and minerals and to this end wants the situation investigated. Thompson plans to go to the islands about June 1 and remain until November.

His task will not conflict with the work of governor general Wood, it is said.

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—Carmel Thompson, of Cleveland, hailed as a forthcoming candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, will not become a candidate and instead will head a mission appointed by President Coolidge to investigate political and economic conditions in the Philippine Islands, according to United Press dispatches from Washington today.

Thompson, press advices stated, has agreed to accept the president's commission which will take him to the Philippines in June. The incidental research work in the islands will consume five months and Thompson, therefore, will not return to the United States until next November, it was declared.

The Coolidge commission it was announced, will go to the Philippines with a view to establishing definitely whether the Philippines plea for independence is justifiable.

The appointment of Thompson, deemed one of the most important presidential assignments in the ascendant, came during Thompson's recent visit to Washington, it was learned.

It was also understood that President Coolidge has authorized Thompson to select from the administration, any counsel he may desire to aid him in the venture.

Thompson, characterized as one of the most influential figures in Ohio politics, was secretary to President William Howard Taft, treasurer of the United States, assistant secretary of the interior and was national manager of President Coolidge's pre-primary campaign in 1924.

REMUS WITHDRAWS SUIT AGAINST ONE

CLEVELAND, April 2.—George Remus, former Cincinnati bootlegger, who sued his estranged wife and six men for the recovery of $700,000 he claims they despoiled him of while he was confined in the federal penitentiary at Alcatraz, has withdrawn his suit against Edward S. Wertz, former United States District Attorney here.

Remus charged Joseph C. Breitenstein, Wertz's law partner, Matt Hinkel, Franklin Dodge, Mrs. Florence Remus, his wife and others with conspiracy to bilk him of his estate. His decision to withdraw the charge against Wertz was advised by his attorney after a conference with Wertz.

Wertz declared he had nothing to do with the divorce suit or other litigation between the former millionaire bootlegger and his wife—that all the proceedings had been handled by Breitenstein.

Remus today said he named Wertz in the suit because he was Breitenstein's partner.

BOOTLEG RING IS THOUGHT BROKEN UP

COLUMBUS, April 2.—Police investigators, co-operating with federal officials today said they had broken up an alleged bootleg ring, with the arrest of seven men here.

Police Corporal Walleto, who is working in co-operation with Assistant U. S. District Attorney W. B. Martels, charged the alleged leader of the ring, Harry Fisher, 23, with conspiracy.

One of the men held claimed to be a clerk in the state highway department.

INCUBATOR BABY DIES AT HOSPITAL

COLUMBUS, April 2.—Mildred Katherine Pfeiffer, Columbus 7-week-old baby, died in a hospital here today.

Mildred Katherine at birth, weighed only one pound and three ounces.

The baby was placed in a hospital "baby incubator" where she spent the remainder of her life.

While encased in the incubator, the infant gained two pounds and six ounces. Until a few days ago, it was believed she would live.

THIRTEEN HOLDS NO TERRORS FOR COACH PRUGH'S ATHLETES

Number thirteen has no terrors for Antioch College.

The school is busily preparing for an ambitious schedule on the baseball diamond this season. Thirteen games, six at home and seven abroad, are on the schedule which opens Saturday with Miami University at Yellow Springs and ends June 16 with Capital University played at Columbus.

Coach Earl E. Prugh will be obliged to draw upon two distinct divisions of the team, the "A" and "B" in forming his squad because of the cooperative plan of five weeks school and five weeks work in Antioch.

"B" group with nine letter men returning to uniform, will open the season playing the first trio of contests on the chart. Dawson and MacLean are the veteran moundsmen. With five regulars back who slugged at a .300 gate last season, veteran hurriers and promising material, the athletic director has high hopes for a successful season.

The "A" division students, returning to college for five weeks beginning April 21, will continue the schedule until May 24, when the "B" men come back to complete the schedule. The "A" squad contains five letter men from last year including Captain Dan Moore.

The schedule follows:
April 13—Wilberforce at Antioch.
April 10—Dayton University at Dayton.
April 13—Wilberforce at Antioch.
April 23—St. Xavier at Antioch.
May 5—Miami at Oxford.
May 6—Cedarville at Antioch.
May 12—Dayton at Antioch.
May 13—Cedarville at Cedarville.
May 15—St. Xavier at Cincinnati.
May 19—Otterbein at Westernville.

June 4—Wilberforce at Wilberforce.
June 12—Capital at Antioch.
June 16—Capital at Columbus.

LET'S WAIT

THERE'S a drive on at Washington for a complete nationalization of our education and many earnest seekers of uplift are getting themselves pretty excited about it.

The idea is sound—but are we men enough to make it work?

In the last few years, we've passed the buck to the federal government in many things—most of which are just as sound theoretically, as the nationalization of education. But we haven't worked them all out yet. And in some of them, it begins to look as if we didn't have brains enough to work them out.

There is no question as to the efficiency of centralization—provided we have the men that can properly direct the centralized power. But this is a vast country with many conflicting and complicated problems. And it is just possible that we have grown faster in the size and complexity of our national problems than we have been able to develop men to meet them.

The federal government is still far from having completely digested and mastered the jobs we have already handed it. Unless more rapid progress is made in the next few years, we may even have to take back some of the things we passed to Washington—good as the idea may have seemed originally. In the mean-time, let's don't pile anything more over there—no matter how practical the plan may appear on paper. And before we ever send anything further over, let's be sure first that we have men and an organization capable of handling the complicated national problem better from Washington than it can be handled by possibly lesser men with nothing but a local phase to settle.

This is not aimed particularly at the educational problem. It applies equally well to road building, national marriage and divorce legislation, child labor regulation, labor problems generally etc., etc.

Certainly certain things could be gained through national standardization of some phases of teaching. But much of this can be accomplished through national organizations, meetings and conferences without flirting with the danger of establishing another lazy, tax-eating, easy-chair bureaucracy on the banks of the Potomac.

Let us send Skinner and Keppel to their national conferences and let them bring back to us the best of the modern thought of the country. And let us use of it what we can and what we can afford.

And let us look forward to the time when we can have a competent, efficient national control.

But let's keep looking forward to it for some time yet.

THE SPUR OF PROGRESS

AUTOMOBILES have set people to traveling, mathematicians to figuring, economists to thinking, millions in herded money and thousands of men and women to working.

John Hopkins University professor anticipates 51,000,000 automobiles in the United States in 1925, and the bureau of industrial technology estimates the American people last year spent $14,293,000,000 for motor vehicles and their maintenance and operation. Automobiles and motor trucks sold last year had an aggregate value of $3,750,000,000, and the depreciation in value last year of all motor vehicles in operation in this country is placed at the amazing sum of $2,500,000,000.

The department of commerce at Washington has compiled statistics showing 19,999,436 motor vehicles registered in the United States last year, an increase of 3,278,000 over the preceding year. The rest of the world has only 5,974,492 passenger and commercial machines.

Last year saw the automobile industry become the nation's largest industry and pass agriculture in the value of its products. In 1925 the American people gave to the automobile industry $2,000,000 more than they paid for their food.

But is this vast and growing expenditure on this one means of transportation and pleasure necessarily inordinate and economically dangerous? Or is it, as the bureau of industrial technology states, "the most important factor, both from an economic and social standpoint, in modern life?" Without the automobile and its great popularity what would the nation do with the millions of men and women employed and the fabulous quantities of materials consumed by the industry? How much of the popularity of suburban life is due to the automobile? Would the farmers have eventually built for themselves the improved roads now being constructed mainly by motor vehicle owners at a cost of $1,000,000,000 a year? Could the country get along again without this gigantic industry and did it get along as well before it had it?

Just Folks

BY EDGAR A. GUEST

IN SPITE OF THE CYNIC

The scoffers for years have been at it. And the cynics for ages have sneered. The clever and smart have all thought it was "art." To belittle what others revered; But still this old world goes on plodding along With the old-fashioned virtues still sturdy and strong.

They've been at it for ages and ages With philosophies vicious and base, But the stuff that they teach, and the stuff that they preach, Doesn't comfort or hearten the race.

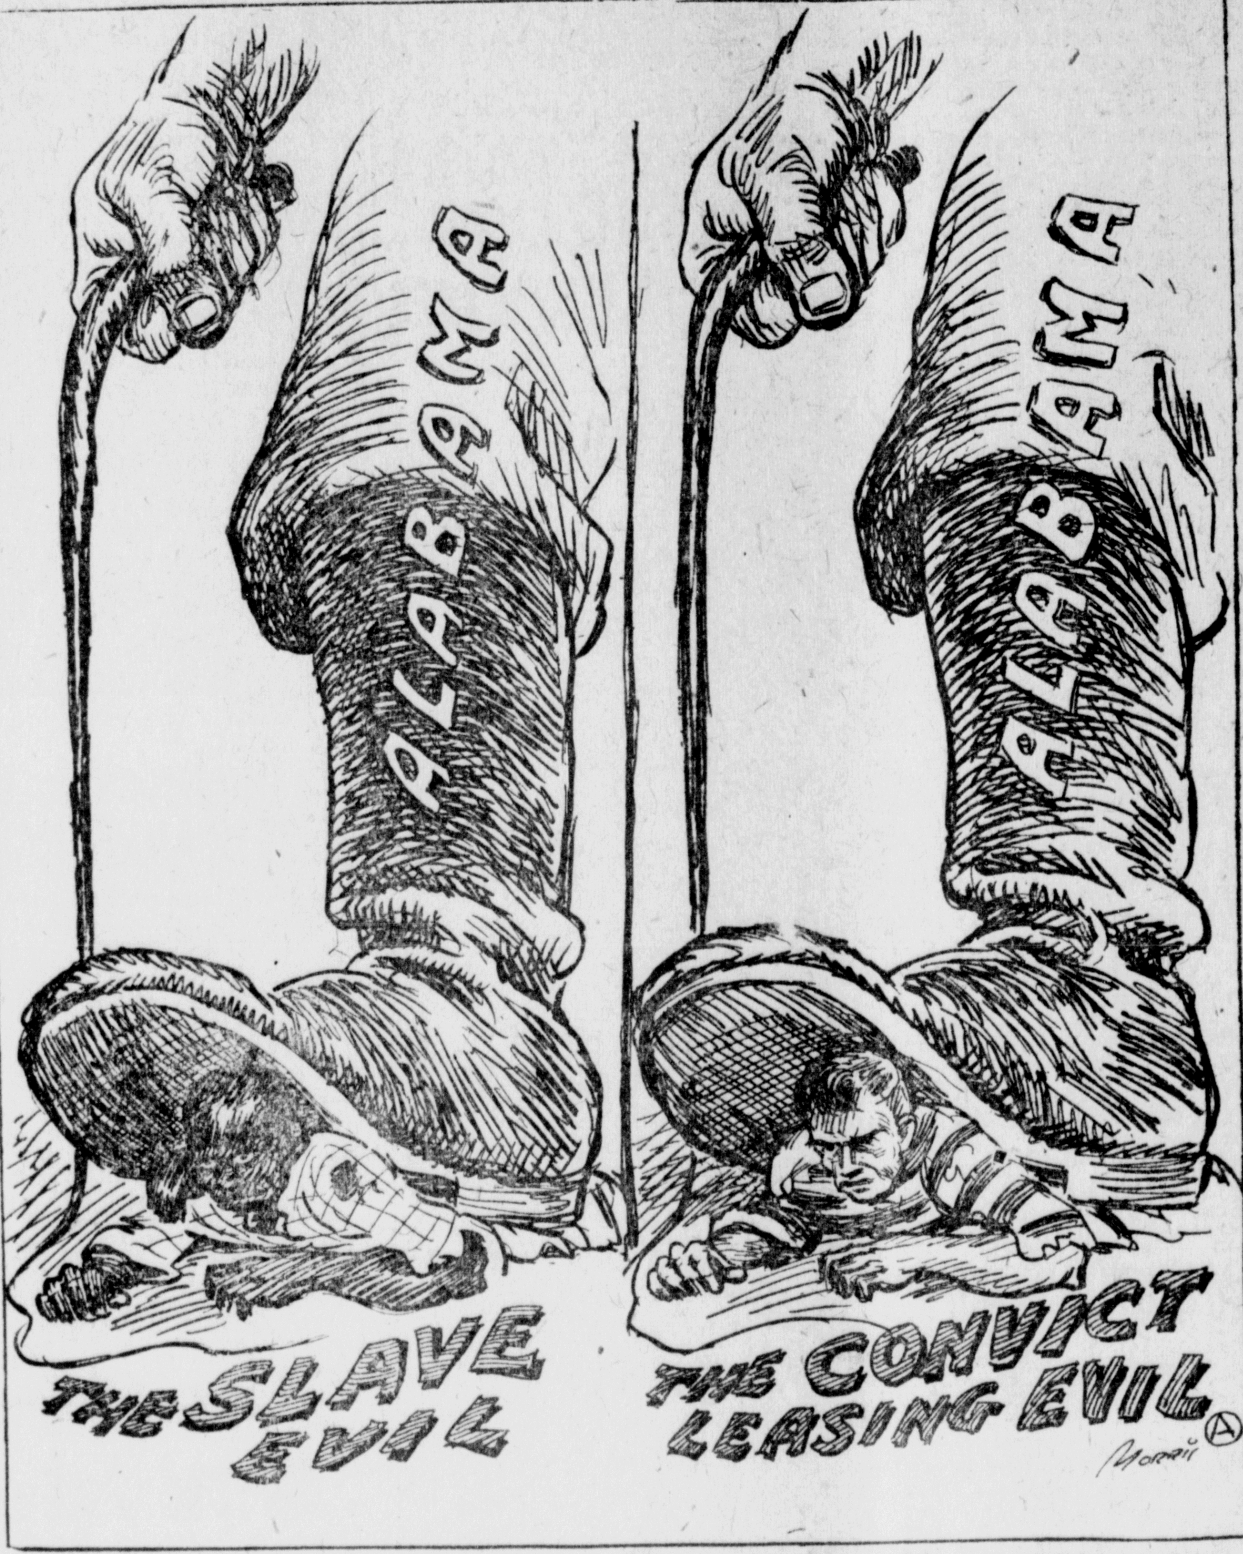

And the old world continues to jog right along With its old-fashioned notions of right and of wrong.

Had there been any truth in their wisdom, Had their jibes been as honest as smart, Every virtue we've kept they'd have long ago swept From the land and the home and the heart.

But the old world continues to plod right along With its old-fashioned faith and its old-fashioned song.

In spite of the wit of the scoffer The many rejoice in their lives. You will find everywhere, where noble and fair, And men who are true to their wives; And the old world continues to march right along Though the cynic insists that its ways are all wrong.

DISHES IN THE WEEK-END MENUS

The following dishes will be called for tomorrow and Sunday in my menus:

Swiss Steak: Buy two and one-half pounds of round steak cut two inches thick. Rub about three-quarters of a cup of bread-flour into this, then sear the meat on both sides in a frying pan in bacon fat. Now place it in a baking dish or casserole; barely cover it with boiling water and add one cup of the more liquid part of a can of tomatoes. Peel and quarter eight medium-sized onions and place these around the meat in the casserole. Add one teaspoon of salt, a pinch of pepper, and let bake in a medium oven, covered, for two and one-half hours. Then serve very hot.

Strawberry-Pineapple Salad: Hull ripe strawberries, cut each berry in half, and measure. To one cupful of the halved berries add three-quarters of a cup of diced pineapple. Heap the fruit mixture on crisp lettuce, top with marshmallow, and serve without dressing.

Almond Pudding: To make this, buy from a bakery shop a few lady fingers and macaroons. Crush six of each in a bowl and add one cupful of scalded sweet milk; let stand several minutes.

Itching, painful rash on hand yields to Resinol

Huntington, L. I., N. Y., Dec. 20: "I want to tell you what your Resinol Ointment has done for me. Some time ago, I had a red, scaly rash between my fingers that came from using too much harsh soap and soap powder. It itched badly, especially at night. I am a housekeeper and every time I had to put my hands in water the pain was intense. One evening I read a Resinol advertisement in the paper and decided to buy a jar. I did and after I had used it for about two months, my trouble was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. Ward Chapman, R. F. D. No. 1, c/o G. James.

CEDARVILLE

Village of Cedarville has a history extending back more than 100 years, a history replete with the incidents which cluster about any community in existence for a century.

Cedarville claims at least two men of national renown, one of whom became a man of international reputation.

The name of Whitelaw Reid stands high on the roll of American journalists and diplomats. Another illustrious son of the village, who has achieved fame as a journalist and poet, is Wilbur "Dick" Nesbit. These two men are only a part of the contribution of this village to the world but they have brought it more fame than any others.

History of a community of this size is much like that of thousands of other villages in the country. It began in a humble way, with its rude log cabins, unkempt streets, meager business enterprises and general air of humility, but with the passing years it kept pace with the development of other towns until it became a thriving village.

Platted June 29, 1816 by Jesse Newport and William Newport, it was known by the name of Milford until 1834.

The village was given a post-office in 1834 and because of the presence of another village in Ohio by the same name, it was necessary to seek a new one.

After careful consideration the name of Cedarville was selected—sixteen years before Cedarville Twp. came into existence. Banks of Massies Creek were lined with cedar trees, a fact that was responsible for choosing that name.

Original plat shows not much was thought of the future possibilities of the town since only twenty four lot were platted. Fifteen lots were south of Chillicothe St., and nine were north of it. It was twenty years before the village grew to a point making an addition to the plat necessary. Since 1836 there have been about seventeen additions to the town.

Today's Talk

JESUS, MY FRIEND

That's why I have always liked Jesus. I am sure that had I lived when He did, I would have wanted to see Him and talk with Him. And I know that He would have been glad to see me. I wouldn't have been embarrassed in talking to Him either. I am sure.

Bruce Barton and I have often talked about this Jesus over a luncheon table. I can't understand why He isn't talked about more. A character so sweet, so strong, so magnetic, so real, so human. I wish more people would write books about Jesus as Bruce Barton has. All of our problems, personal, national, and worldwide, would be better solved if we knew Jesus better and loved Him more.

The most puzzling problem clears itself, standardized by the love, common sense and vision of this Jesus, whom nearly every body has heard about, but whom so few really know.

I spent last night reading the book that my friend Bruce Barton wrote a little while ago which he called "The Man Nobody Knows."

I liked this book because he brought Jesus into my room and I was very happy with Him. I felt that this Jesus knew and understood my problems and that He didn't drop in to find fault with my "many faults."

I felt like Zacharias must have felt when he heard that Jesus was to pass through his town, and because he was so small in stature, he climbed a tree and waited till the famous man came along. And when He did come along, He looked up into the tree and said something in the spirit of these words: "What are you doing up there, Zacharias? Come on down. I have heard a great deal about you and I want to take dinner with you at your house tonight!"

How thrilled this business man must have been. You see the thing that made him get up into the tree was that he believed that there was something very great about Jesus and he was determined to find out what it was. Immediately the folks about Jesus ran up to Him and whispered to Him that that fellow was not the kind for Him to see or to talk to and that it would hurt His reputation to go to his house. But Jesus went.

Jesus picked His friends from those who needed Him.

McDISH MITZI—Only The Goofer Knows What's Wrong

BY J. V. JAY

The lady may be beautiful. She may be attractive. She may be wearing a gown of lace that has come straight from Paris. The Goofer will never know any of those things. As unobtrusively as he can he is looking for Mitzi. (Will not notice that the lady's scarf is of lace to match her dress?)

There seem to be plenty of young women about. The one to the left wears a robe de style of black lace with the upper part of the bodice and the lower part of the skirt of chiffon. The one to the right shows how effectively the straightline evening gown can be made from lace, too.

It won't give the Goofer much pleasure. He does find Mitzi. He will reflect bitterly on the leanness of men who are able to impress the father with their brains and the daughter with their dancing. There has, of course, never been any question about the Goofer's dancing!

WILBERFORCE WILL OPEN DIAMOND YEAR WITH CEDARVILLE 9

A rather stiff chart of twelve games has been drawn up for the Wilberforce University diamond nine this season, eight at home and four abroad.

Wilberforce will open its schedule April 12 with Cedarville College playing at Wilberforce, and close June 10 with Muskingum College at New Concord, O.

H. C. Graves, of the Michigan Agricultural College, will again coach the squad this year and optimism reigns in the university camp.

Five or six letter men are back from last year and everything points to a successful campaign.

Material is available for almost every position but filling places in the infield, the first line of defense, is expected to give the most trouble. The present battery leaves nothing to be desired.

Schedule follows:

April 12—Cedarville College at Wilberforce.

April 13—Antioch at Antioch.

April 24—Cedarville at Cedarville.

May 3—Antioch at Wilberforce.

May 10—Bluefield, W. Va., at Wilberforce.

May 16—West Virginia Military Institute at Wilberforce.

May 17—West Virginia Military Institute at Wilberforce.

May 29—Capital University at Wilberforce.

May 31—Wilmington at Wilberforce.

June 5—Capital at Columbus.

June 7—Muskingum at Wilberforce.

June 10—Muskingum at New Concord, O.

BOWLING

Thursday night's matches in the individual city bowling tournament wrought several changes in the standing.

Arch Jeffries rolled a total of 604 in winning the odd game in three from Earl Gannon in the Class A match. Much interest was attached to this match because the two pin artists are conceded to be the best in the city. Gannon was high average man in the Xenia Bowling League the past season with Jeffries second, only a few pins in the rear.

Chalmers Murphy won two games from Brickie in the Class B series. Class C matches were postponed.

Class A Results
Gannon	191	209
Jeffries	236	213
Class B Results
Brickie	169	164
Murphy	190	162

CENTRAL HIGH TOSSERS HONORED AT SCHOOL BANQUET THURSDAY

Tribute to Central High School's 1925-26 basketball squad was paid in a banquet tendered the athletes in the high school cafeteria Thursday evening, attended by members of the team, school faculty, and the Xenia Board of Education.

Letters of blue chinchilla with a white border were presented to seven players and the student manager, including Howell Huston, 1925-26 captain, Fred Smith, captain-elect Robert Finlay, Harold Parrett, Fred Scurry, William Clemans, Curtis Stearns, and Robert Buckles, student manager.

Smith, Huston and Clemans will be available again next season while the remainder of the letter man are seniors.

Menu consisting of fruit salad, candied sweet potatoes, scalloped corn, veal pigeon, strawberries, ice cream and cake and coffee, was served by girl students of the domestic science class.

Table decorations were of blue and white, the high school colors, and Easter flowers.

Short talks were delivered by Coach Victor Kolb and Jack Weaver, of the manual training department. The athletic director awarded the letters with a talk stressing their importance. Mr. Weaver was introduced by Principal Spencer Shank, and thanks the basketball team on behalf of the teachers for making the recent benefit court game between the faculty and students possible.

Pure Milk Means
Healthy Babies!

Pure Milk Is Essential In the Proper Development Of Children

The most important thing in the world for the baby is raw milk. It is the perfect raw material out of which he builds body, bone and sinew, the brain and heart and hand which will serve him through all the years to come. It is the one that gives him everything he needs.

MISS NEVILLE OF THE GAZETTE REPUBLICAN

is enthusiastic in her praise of the high quality of all our dairy products which have been used exclusively during four days of the school.

Our products are always the same—always the best.

Thousands of babies have grown to sturdy maturity on Dairy Products Standard Milk and Special Baby Milk.

The Special Baby Milk is milk from a herd of tuberculin-tested Jersey cows. These cows are magnificent animals, big and vital, and their milk is endowed by nature with a peculiar power to make baby's body grow. Dairy Products Special Baby Milk is worth its extra cost.

Mothers! Protect Your Children

Milk builds sturdy bodies, ruddy with the glow of health. It fosters growth. It builds red blood, strong bones, lusty sinews. It gives stamina for play, and for the serious tasks of school days.

It is the sacred right of your children to be as strong and healthy as science and knowledge can make them. Give them milk! There is nothing can take its place. Nothing ever has. Nothing ever will.

Last Call For Master

"Lest You Forget!"

We owe it to ourselves just as much as we do to those who follow us to KEEP A PICTURE RECORD of the homely, everyday little adventures we enjoy! Think how you would treasure an intimate boyhood picture of your grandfather, your GREAT grandmother, taken as you take them today!—with a KODAK! Think what a treasure your KODAK ALBUM will be to YOUR great grandchildren! And it's so simple a matter to form the habit of keeping a "loaded" KODAK handy. And SPRING is here!

This Here Now House-cleaning

There's plenty comment in the rest of this ad on house-cleaning, so the main and principal IDEA here is to present it in a kindly way the list of ammunition that we carry HERE for your spring offensive.

Wall Paper Cleaner: We have two cleaners here, Cleveland, 15¢ and Climax, 15¢; which slap grimy walls for a goal leaving them pure and dainty. Both are good.

Soaps: We carry 32 different brands, 5 of which are so powerful they can change a pessimistic, black-hearted floor, or other woodwork, into bright, smiling OPTIMISM. And do it quickly!

O' Cedar: You KNOW what this does, and whether you need any or not. You MAY have forgotten the price, however. Its' 30¢ and 60¢.

Lye and Borax: The two sun-burst twins! Both helon DIRT—tho' their methods differ a bit! We gottem: Babbitt's Lye, 15¢, Borax, 15¢25¢; Kleansall 25¢.

Touchin' Up Things!

A lot of new ideas have been put out by paint manufacturers lately in "finishes." One of the keenest is Parakeet, which goes on easily, dries quickly, is fool-proof, comes in 9 colors and in general is quite entirely RIGHT for use by amateur painters, who want to fix up a few things around the house. Sells for $1.00 a pint!

We were NEARLY OUT of Easter items when a new shipment came in JUST IN TIME and we advise that you HURRY or these too will get picked over before you get outfitted. Here are just a few:

FOR HER—Town Talk Chocolates, Jontee Chocolates.
FOR KIDLETS—Chocolate Marshmallow Eggs.

TOILOTRELEU! BOASTING A BIT!

It's real evidence of civilization when the "nicer things" come into general use. Certainly this applies tightly to the Toilettes Counter of ours, for every day, every week, every YEAR we have seen it grow in popularity and in SIZE! No goods in our entire store are more carefully selected than these and we try hard to keep step with "concoits that are new!"

PLAIN R-U-I-N!

The human being who neglects the habit of thorough elimination is no more foolish than the person who drinks himself to death! The only difference is that the latter has a bit more fun out of HIS death than the first! Hard drinking and constipation are DANGEROUS. We mention this because we want to have you TRY JUST ONCE Rexall's Orderlies, a non-habit forming NATURAL bowel regulator.

INSIDIOUS! PERSISTENT!

"Kidney Trouble" may for months and years be hiding away in your system getting a real strong foothold, ready to hop on you strong when it thinks the time is ripe. Certain little "symptoms" are danger signals and these should NEVER be overlooked. At the FIRST flare you should take a limited treatment of Rexall Kidney Compound which we believe will quiet this ailment for keeps. Cosas 0c and 1.0.

The Doctor's Orders!

There is no "MIDDLE-GROUND" in the business of compounding a prescription. It's either PERFECTLY done, EXACTLY right or it's WRONG! Certainly we take a real pride in the work and place a high value on the confidence you repose in us when you bring your prescriptions to us.

What do they PUT In these Candy Crabs?

We KNOW that the ingredients are Positively Pure but there's SOME things that makes the NEW customer, after he's bit one, raise his eyebrow quickly, dig around for another 39c piece and dash right back here for ANOTHER pound! Seen it happen a 100 times.

A Happy MIND!

Such a one can't be bothered with a pain in the stomach! Can't be bothered with gas, rumblings, indigestion and bloating! A happy mind is optimistic. An optimist carries SUCCESS in both fists! Why let a mean stomach whip you when Jackson's Stomach Remedy can put you in better formation in 30 days.

Red Flannels!

In the old days when they "took 'em off," it meant "Sulphur and Molasses" time had arrived! Sure an ornery mess but mighty effective for it did the exact right thing that your system needed for spring. Nowadays we use Spring Tablets, which has MORE kick than S. and M., yet is as pleasant to take as your favorite soda water. And Spring is HERE!

Police and Fountain News!

Hurry, Little Lemon! for a real, hard squeeze! And this hard squeeze is given for a reason; For I'm going to change you to a "Lemonade" Before you dry up and get mis-laid.

For inside of you and your yellow rinds Is a lot of food called Vitamines Which you can't use so well as us— That's why I'm starting all this fuss!

Bring Out the Old One!

An old Kodak is just as good as a new one if you've taken good care of it. And NOW is the time to look it over and see that the carburetor is adjusted, springs greased and that you've plenty of FILMS! Of course, there ARE folks who HAVE no Kodak; so in THAT case, we will expect you in to make your selection. All sizes and prices!

Movies Save Three Families From Death in Blast

In Braddock, Pa., while the families of three houses were at a nearby movie theater, an explosion which police lay to a bomb, wrecked the homes. Fire followed and $25,000 damage was done. Had the blast occurred a short time earlier a score of persons might have been killed.

PEGGY OUT for grand slam. Peggy Hopkins Joyce (above), heart-breaker extraordinary, is still setting the pace in the matrimonial game. The baron's beautiful daughter has already chosen hubby No. 5. He is said to be Patrick Anthony Powers, multi-millionaire film producer of New York and California. Peggy's No. 4, Count Gosta Morner, was recently divorced.

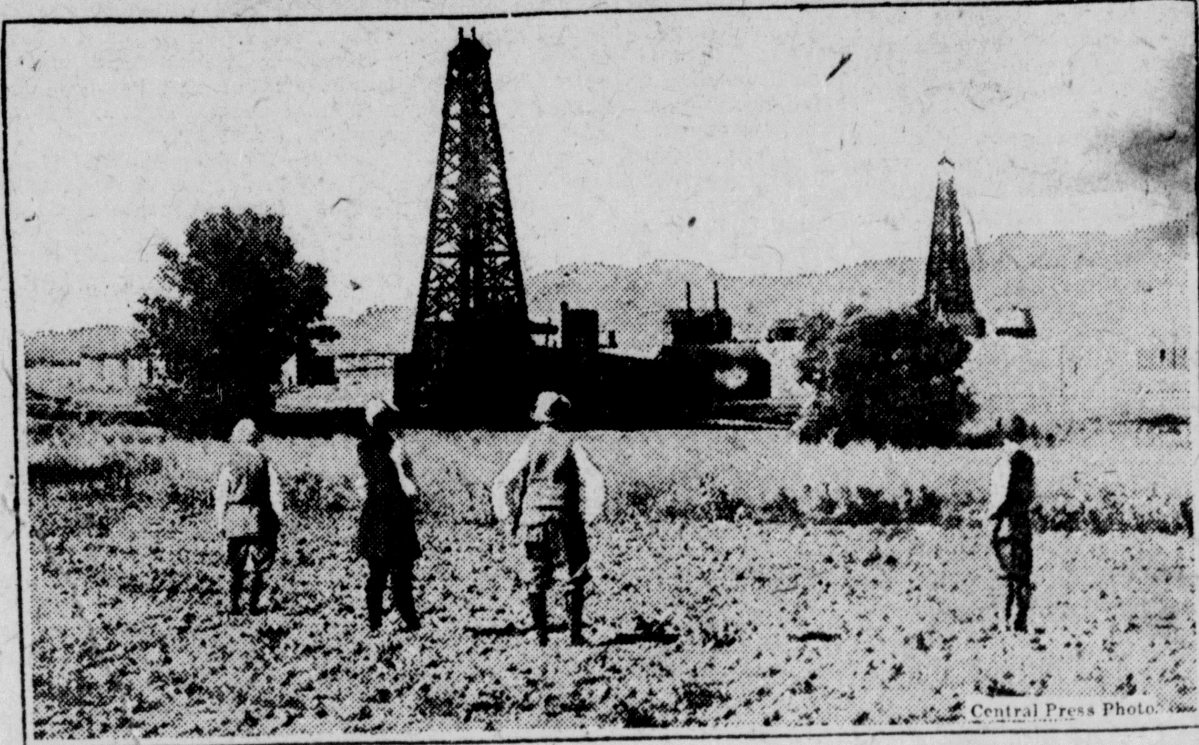

AT THE LEFT Myrtle Stedman is wearing an extremely feminine negligee in white chiffon with flowing train and sleeves. A circular design in black is applied in beads. At the right, Peggy Hopkins Joyce is wearing a lounging robe of satin, which has a brocaded jacket of Oriental design.

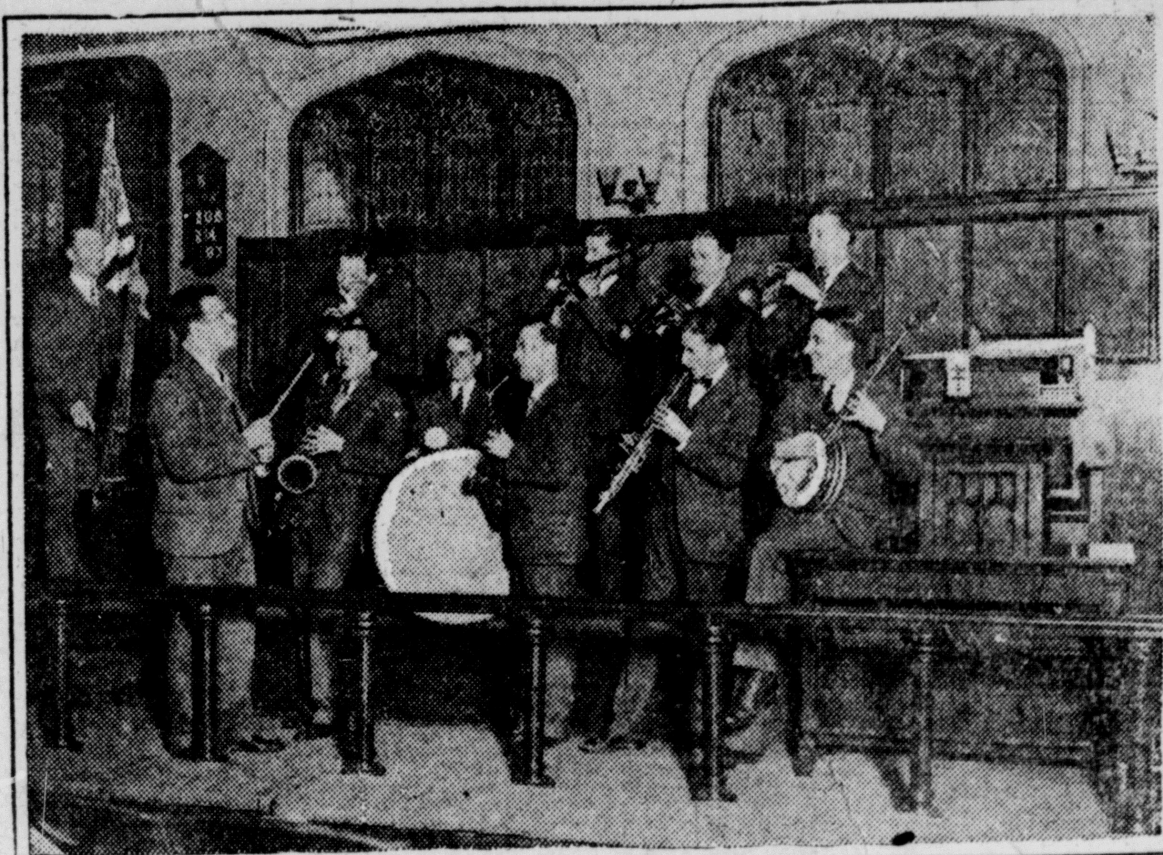

"PUNCH DRUNK" in the fight in which he lost title, and mind affected ever since, Cannonball Eddie Martin, ex-bantamweight champ, was held by the New Rochelle police on technical charge of stealing an auto. Photo shows him sparring with 4-year-old sister, Nora.

Second "Gold Rush" on in Colorado

Colorado is witnessing a second "gold rush" comparable with that of a half a century ago. This time "liquid gold" is the lure. Rich oil strikes near Fort Collins have made that district a new mecca for prospectors, with a rush for claims. Photo shows some of the derricks which are springing up rapidly.

Churches Use Jazz Music to Pep Up Services

Jazz is gaining a foothold in religion. Wilshire Congregational church, Los Angeles, is one of many following the lead of Chelsea M. E. church, New York, in making jazz numbers a part of the services. "Modernism and pep must be injected into the religion of today to make it attractive to insurgent youth," explains Rev. Frank Dyer of the Los Angeles congregation. Photo shows jazz orchestra installed in place of choir in the Chelsea church.

Fire Makes Hundreds Homeless in Newport, Ark.

Outside aid is being given Newport, Ark., in housing the persons made homeless when 279 buildings were reduced to ruins by a fire that virtually wiped out the residential district. The loss is estimated at more than $1,500,000. William Ruffer, Jr., 20, is a local hero because he tore off restraining hands, dashed into a flaming house and rescued "Fox," pet dog trapped inside. "I couldn't stand to hear him whine—he's been my buddy for 14 years," says Ruffer, who is shown in the inset.

U. S. Dry? Congressmen Seek Answer in Unofficial Probe

Lacking official sanction and with a membership unrepresentative of all shades of opinion in the lower house, a congressional committee is undertaking a survey of the workings of prohibition in the country, "to determine if the United States is dry, and if so, whether it can stay that way." Members of the committee are seen in conference. Back row (l. to r.) Reps. Kvale, Minn.; Box, Tex.; Upshaw, Ga. Front row: (l. to r.) Reps. Green, Fla.; LaGuardia, N. # SOUTH CHARLESTON MINISTER HEARD AT HOLY WEEK SERVICE

Week services of the First Presbyterian Church were held Friday evening by the Rev. M. Bert Koonce, South Charleston, who preached using John 8:12 as text, "I am the light of the world."

The speaker introduced his message with a resume of the efforts on are putting forth to obtain light on every known subject, scientific, philosophic, psychic and material. He commended the efforts to seek light but proved that no amount of such knowledge will ever reveal the Eternal God to any one.

"We do not approach the spiritual through the material," he said. "Spiritual light can be obtained by contact with the 'light of the world' and that contact is through the spiritual capacities intuned with the infinite sources of spiritual light. Do the will of God and you will know the doctrine or have a light. Inner light comes to the through Jesus Christ, when we are willing to do the 'will of God,' a speaker continued. He closed with an illustration of great musician playing upon an organ and making the instrument give out its hidden music and ones appealing to all present to follow the Master of Life to bring out the hidden harmonies of our own lives.

Mrs. Zella Seward sang "Fair-est Lord Jesus." Last service of the week will be held Friday evening at 7:30, when the Lord's Supper will be administered. The pastor, the Rev. W. H. Telford, will be in charge of this service. Token cards have been sent to all resident members and these will be given in tonight at the service by those who attend.

Mrs. A. V. Perill will sing "The Old Rugged Cross."

The Theatre

"The Black Crook," immortal melodrama, is scheduled to be presented at the Opera House.

Billy Fletcher, unable to eat his evening meal because of the thrill, arrives at the theater early to light the coal oil lamps that serve as footlights at the edge of the stage.

The company eventually straggles in and Harry Clark, the mail carrier, takes his usual seat in the audience. A crowd that fills the theater sits spellbound through "The Black Crook". Or maybe it was "Hearts Adrift" or one of the other vehicles which were the boon of the repertoire companies.

This is a picture of the Opera House as it was in its hey-day. Sometime I would like to write the story of the Opera House, just as Harry Clark, Billy Fletcher, Charley Gorham or others who were familiar with its early glory, can tell it.

Looking at it in the glare of this modern light, it would be a story of ghosts. Anyway it would be a yarn of dead men. And dead women. John L. Sullivan, sending to the Florence Hotel bar across the street for whiskey which he consumed in liberal quantities without outward effect before making his grand entrance.

Frederick Warde, the tragedian, doing the drama of his youth. A procession of minstrel men, song and dance men, actors. A parade of women and girls. Drama, melodrama, repertoire and black face. A series of crowded auditoriums for each night's performance.

These are pictures conjured up by Clark and Gorham and Fletcher, who like to talk about the Opera House in its pristine state and the important theatrical people who came here. Xenia was then recognized.

DAMAGE SUIT ENDS WITH SETTLEMENT

Jury trial of the $5,000 damage suit of George Lea against N. Ebner and Oscar Werber, doing business as the "Xenia Fertilizer Co." in Common Pleas Court Thursday, came to a sudden end when a compromise was effected by joint agreement of both parties, under which the defendants settled for $500.

Settlement came while the trial was in progress at the conclusion of introduction of evidence by the plaintiff.

Complainant in his suit, alleged he received permanent injuries in the form of a head injury, numerous bruises and sprains, when he was thrown from his buggy after the equipage was struck by a truck driven by an employee of the defendant company on E. Second St., October 22, 1925.

He claimed damage to the buggy amounted to $35 and that medical attention for his horse, which was injured, cost $25. Employee was blamed for the accident.

Ethel Paxton has brought suit for divorce from Charles Paxton in Common Pleas Court on grounds of extreme cruelty and infidelity. The couple was married September 2, 1916 and has one child, Yvonne, aged 5.

Plaintiff seeks to be decreed alimony and custody of the child and asks that a temporary injunction be granted by the court restraining her husband from disposing of stock he owns in the Sabina Auto Inn.

RAILROAD PLANS TO INSTALL SIGNAL AT CROSSING AT SELMA

As an echo of the crossing accident at Selma, January 23, 1926, in which Floyd Thorne, Cedarville, was almost instantly killed when his truck was struck by a Pennsylvania train, R. C. Barnard, superintendent of the Cincinnati division of the railroad, is understood to have made an offer to Clark County Commissioners to protect the crossing by installation of two flash signals, one each side of the tracks.

Under the terms of the offer, the company may erect the automatic lights on seven-foot standards. Cost of the lights is estimated at $2,000. It is proposed the commissioner and railroad shall share the expense equally.

Proposition was taken under consideration and referred to W. H. Seiverling, Clark County surveyor. Decision is expected within a week.

A suit is now pending in Com-

road for $50,000 damages as a result of Thorne's death. Action was filed by his widow, Mrs. Helen Thorne, as administrator of the estate.

It is claimed the crossing is dangerous and unprotected. Clear view of the tracks is also blocked it is alleged.

Most men and women past fifty must give to the bowels some occasional help else they suffer from constipation. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect a gentle aid to weak bowels.

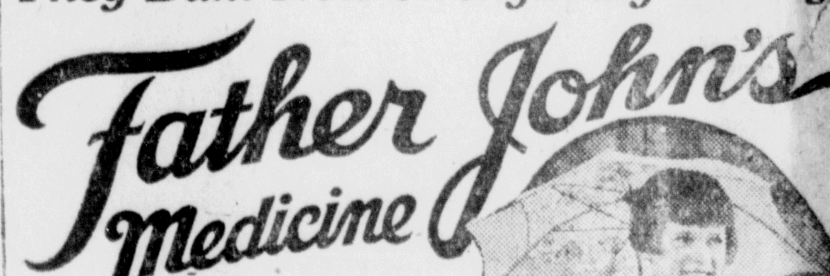

Is your present laxative, in whatever form, promoting natural bowel "regularity"—or must you purge and "physic" every day or two to avoid sick headache, dizziness, biliousness, colds, or sour, gassy stomach?

Bernard and James Quinn of 8 Magnolia Ave., Cambridge, Mass., had the whooping cough and lost considerable weight and strength. Their mother Mrs. James Quinn says: "I gave my boys Father John's Medicine and the benefit obtained surpassed our hopes. The coughing stopped, they began to eat better and regained the flesh and strength they had lost. I certainly do recommend Father John's Medicine to all families."

Inset in the circle is Marguerite, daughter of Mrs. A. T. Gonyer, of Orono, Maine. Mrs. Gonyer writes: "Marguerite had been rather thin and pale when we began giving Father John's Medicine. Since taking it she has grown well and strong and her vitality has returned. I urgently recommend Father John's Medicine to other mothers who wish to build up a run down child."

In millions of homes, from coast to coast, Father John's Medicine is the family medicine for body building—the tonic that old or young may safely take to build new health and strength—because it contains no drugs and has had over 60 years of success.

SPRING SERMON THURSDAY FIRST M. E. CHURCH

The Passion Week service will be held at the First M. E. Church, 10:30 a. m. when Dr. F. W. Stanton will preach on the theme, "The Communion." Mr. Madge, director, sang a new arrangement of "Lead Kindly Lead" and the largest attendance for the service was noted. The service of the "Passion Week" was held at the First M. E. Church, 10:30 a. m. when Dr. F. W. Stanton, "was preaching of the great annual feast. Being cast out of the temple and not permitted to take of the festivities Jesus and His disciples went to an upper room, where the Passover Feast was eaten, and the communion was held with the disciples. That upper room is the chamber of the human heart—our innermost chamber of Jesus. It was willingly given for this feast, it was furnished and prepared. So ought we to be, that Christ may be in and commune with us. The events of that upper room should teach us all the lesson of humility, the necessity of communion in the act of the Lord's Supper and the communion to be found in the communion of the holy comforter." The communion service was held at the First M. E. Church, Friday afternoon 2 to 3 o'clock, in commemoration of the sufferings and death of the Christ. Several people took part in this impressive service. There will be no service Friday night, but an early 6 o'clock service will be held Easter morning in the Sunday School room of the church, sponsored by the Epworth League. Mrs. I. W. Clouse will have charge of this service and invitations are extended to all persons of the church. A large class of new members is to be received Sunday morning. The choir will render special Easter music at 7:30 in the evening.

FARMERS HAD MORE
GRAIN THIS YEAR

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—Ohio farmers had over three times as much corn in their cribs and 49 percent more oats in their granaries on March 1 of this year than on March 1, 1925, figures compiled by rural economists show.

Corn on Ohio farms March 1, tallied 88,968,000 bushels, as compared with 24,985,000 bushels a year ago and an average of 58,279,000 bushels on farms March 1, for the period 1921-25. Oats on Ohio farms tallied 34,545,000 bushels March 1, as compared with 24,575,000 bushels a year ago, and an average of 20,276,000 bushels on farms March 1 for the period 1921-25.

Corn prices have been in inverse proportion to the stock on farms in March, one of the economists. W. J. Utz, pointed out.

New-Day
Performance
more than just Speed, enabled

The New-Day
JEWETT SIX to smash all records
in the Detroit-Chicago run!

THINK of it! From the center of Detroit to the center of Chicago in the phenomenal time of 6 hours and 5 minutes, elapsed time! Thirty-five minutes faster than the fastest time ever made by the famous "Wolverine"—crack Michigan Central train!

Shattered at last is the record that has been shot at for years by the best drivers in the biggest and fastest cars! And by a stock car—driven by a non-professional driver—over icy, slippery roads.

The New-Day Jewett accomplished this tremendous feat—not so much because of great speed, but rather because of its remarkable ease of handling, its quickness to stop with Paige-Hydraulic 4-wheel brakes, its lightning-like acceleration, its wonderful roadability—and adaptability!

Because, in short, of all those exclusive features that so clearly and unmistakably establish it a "New-Day" car!

Coming quick on the heels of the first announcement of this New-Day car—this amazing record establishes beyond all doubt not only the superior new performance of this New-Day Jewett Six—but its superior stamina and strength as well.

You may never need or want the great speed of The New-Day Jewett Six. But you do need and want its "New-Day" performance—its ability to get you through traffic or across country in less time, with less effort, with no inconvenience or annoyances of any kind.

You can see and drive an exact duplicate of this record-breaking car at our showroom. Come in—and drive one soon!

OHIOAN APPOINTED INVESTIGATOR FOR PHILIPPINE ISLES

Acceptance Means Cleveland Man Not To Seek Office

By United Press
WASHINGTON, April 2.—Carmel Thompson, of Ohio, national commander of the Spanish War Veterans, has been appointed by President Coolidge, to conduct an economic investigation of the Philippines. It was said in quarters close to the White House today that the investigation does not include the question of Philippine independence.

The President was said to feel that the islands are not yielding sufficient sugar, rubber and minerals and to this end wants the situation investigated. Thompson plans to go to the islands about June 1 and remain until November.

His task will not conflict with the work of governor general Wood, it is said.

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—Carmel Thompson, of Cleveland, hailed as a forthcoming candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, will not become a candidate and instead will head a mission appointed by President Coolidge to investigate political and economic conditions in the Philippine islands, according to United Press dispatches from Washington today.

Thompson, press advices stated, has agreed to accept the presidents commission which will take him to the Philippines in June. The incidental research work in the islands will consume five months and Thompson, therefore, will not return to the United States until next November, it was declared.

The Coolidge commission it was announced, will go to the Philippines with a view to establishing definitely whether the Philippines plea for independence is justifiable. The appointment of Thompson, deemed one of the most important presidential assignments in the decade, came during Thompson's recent visit to Washington, it was learned.

It was also understood that President Coolidge had authorized Thompson to select from the administration, any counsel he may desire to aid him in the venture. Thompson, characterized as one of the most influential figures in Ohio politics, was secretary to President William Howard Taft, treasurer of the United States, assistant secretary of the interior and was national manager of President Coolidge's pre-primary campaign in 1924.

REMUS WITHDRAWS SUIT AGAINST ONE

CLEVELAND, April 2.—George Remus, former Cincinnati bootlegger, who sued his estranged wife and six men for the recovery of $700,000 he claims they despoiled him of while he was confined in the federal penitentiary at Alcatraz, has withdrawn his suit against Edward S. Wertz, former United States District Attorney here.

Remus charged Joseph C. Breitenstein, Wertz's law partner, Matt Hinkel, Franklin Dodge, Mrs. Florence Remus, his wife and others with conspiracy to bilk him of his estate. His decision to withdraw the charge against Wertz was advised by his attorney after a conference with Wertz.

Wertz declared he had nothing to do with the divorce suit or other litigation between the former millionaire bootlegger and his wife—that all the proceedings had been handled by Breitenstein.

Remus today said he named Wertz in the suit because he was Breitenstein's partner.

BOOTLEG RING IS THOUGHT BROKEN UP

COLUMBUS, April 2.—Police investigators, co-operating with federal officials today said they had broken up an alleged bootleg ring, with the arrest of seven men here.

Police Corporal Walletha, who is working in cooperation with Assistant U. S. District Attorney W. B. Martels, charged the alleged leader of the ring, Harry Fisher, 23, with conspiracy.

One of the men held claimed to be a clerk in the state highway department.

INCUBATOR BABY DIES AT HOSPITAL

COLUMBUS, April 2.—Mildred Katherine Pfeiffer, Columbus 7-week-old incubator baby, died in a hospital here today.

Mildred Katherine at birth, weighed only one pound and three ounces.

The baby was placed in a hospital "baby incubator" where she spent the remainder of her life.

While encased in the incubator, the infant gained two pounds and six ounces. Until a few days ago, it was believed she would live.

CONGRESS VOTES TO IMPEACH FEDERAL JUDGE OF ILLINOIS

PARTIES TO SELECT COMMITTEEMEN TO PROSECUTE JURIST

Time For Trial Of English Not Set By Leaders

By United Press
WASHINGTON, April 2.—Republican and Democratic leaders in the house expected to reach an agreement today on appointment of a committee to prosecute Federal Judge George W. English of the eastern district of Illinois, when he is called before the bar of the senate to stand trial for "high misdemeanors" in office.

After the house last night, by an overwhelming vote decided to impeach the jurist, Chairman Graham, Pennsylvania, of the judiciary committee sought to have seven members of his committee appointed to manage the case in the senate, but Minority Leader Garrett, Tennessee objected.

Whatever agreement is reached will be put in resolution form and submitted to the house Tuesday. Just when English will stand trial is problematical. A definite decision on a date for the trial is expected after house prosecutors have conferred with the jurist.

Some senators are disposed to put pending business on the shelf and proceed with the case at once, while Majority Leader Curtis, Kansas, feels it should be postponed until the end of the session.

The closing minutes of the case in the house were punctuated with drama and tension. As the roll call on the motion to recommit the case and the final vote on the impeachment resolution and the accompanying articles, neared completion, members grouped around the speakers rostrum. Speaker Longworth on several occasions ordered the roll call suspended until members retired to their seats.

Opponents of impeachment were caught napping when Longworth put the resolution to the house for a vote. It is planned to seek a roll call on this ballot. On a viva voce vote, Longworth announced that the "ayes seem to have it." And then after waiting for a reasonable length of time for a demand of a record vote he announced that the "ayes have it, and the resolution is agreed to."

FEMININE STYLES BATTLE MASCULINE MODES FOR FAVOR

LONDON, Apr. 2.—Second Street in a battlefield these days. The super-feminine styles are fighting the mannish tailor-mades and the public claps its hands and cries "let both sides win" as it awaits Easter day.

No women could resist a dinner suit one firm is showing. The short pleated skirt and saucy travesty of a waistcoat are expressed in salmon crepe de chine. The "dinner jacket" is in green and silver tulle, exquisitely tailored. Cuff links, pearl studs and a natty buttonhole are all amusingly masculine, but the whole gives an impression of a "daring" dress, as Sean O'Casey would say. The Mannequin admitted that she loved wearing it and nothing could be more suitable for a club or home dinner.

Fluttering rose petals seemed to compose a dress of chiffon and lined with black taffeta and coat that accompanied it—the coat de-mure and the frock a frivolous summer dream. And it seemed not strange at all that a woman should order it and "smoking suit" at one and the same time.

PARIS—"It is never too late to do good," hopefully murmured 103-year-old Madeleine Augustin Touret, as she had her hair bobbed, preparatory to celebrating her 104th birthday. Mlle. Touret admits a fondness for cards, jazz and other modern diversions.

BOARDER CHARGED WITH MURDER AFTER LANDLADY IS KILLED

PAINESVILLE, O., April 2.—A charge of first degree murder was lodged today against George Wargo, 59, who shot and killed Mrs. Annie Sabor, 34, at whose home he boarded, because "she refused to cook cabbage for my supper."

The shooting occurred in the presence of Mrs. Sabor's panicked children, the youngest of whom, Julia, was wounded by a stray bullet. The death of Mrs. Sabor, who was a widow, left the children orphans.

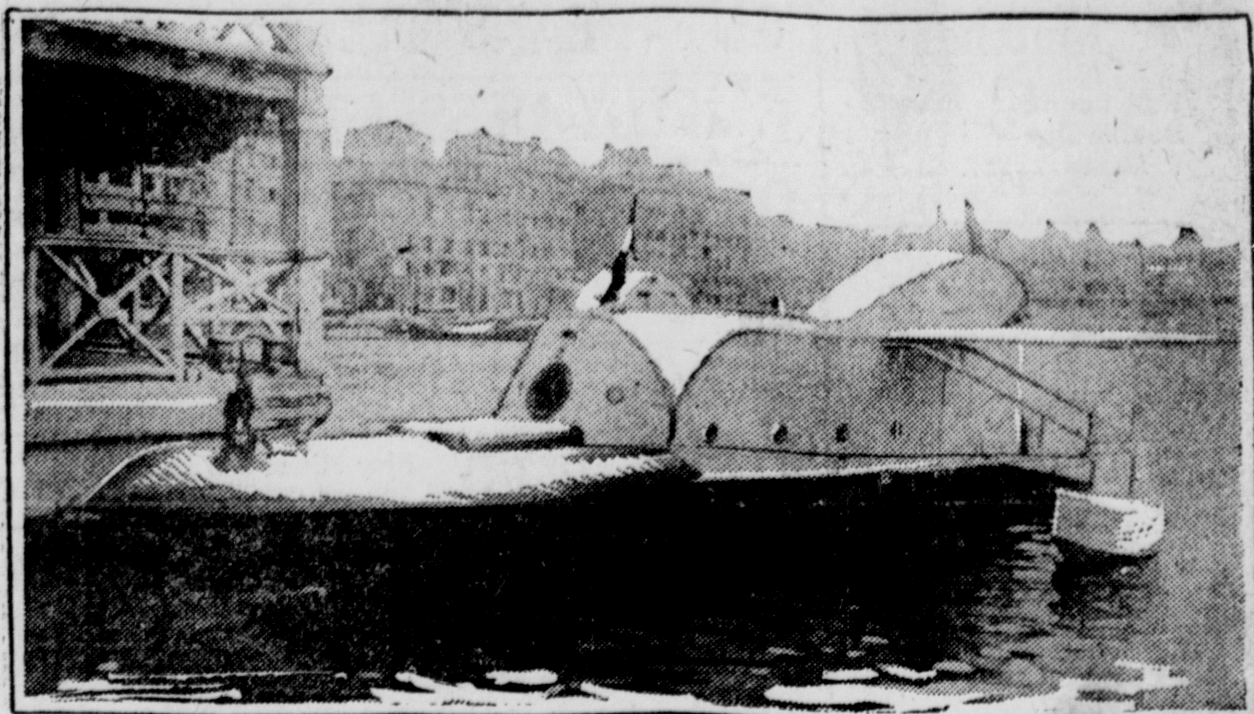

Wargo had boarded at the Sabor home for several months, according to neighbors who summoned police when they heard the shots. The officers arrived just in time to prevent a mob seizing the enraged man.

Wargo today apparently was unperturbed over the shooting and his arrest.

"I don't care if she is dead," he told the jailers defiantly. "What happens means nothing to me."

County officials were concerned today over the disposition of the children who are now wards of the county.

"Sea Flea" to Try to Set Transatlantic Record

A new type of speed boat, known as the oceanplane, will make an attempt to cross the Atlantic in record time, piloted by its designer, M. De Gasenko. He will start from Marseilles and head for Pernambuco. He estimates the open sea speed of the craft at 140 kilometers an hour.

THREE INVESTIGATIONS CHECK UP ON MILLIONAIRE GOD FATHER

Browning Faces Separate Probes of his Conduct with Young Girl—Father Has No Objection To Her Marriage

NEW YORK, Apr. 2.—(UP)—Edward W. Browning's latest experience as a "Daddy" has precipitated at least three official or semi-official investigations, and the returns are as yet incomplete. Authorities at the high school where 15-year-old Frances Heenan is enrolled, appear somewhat anxious to find out why the girl has not attended classes since last fall.

It is probable that as soon as Frances has recovered from acid burns on her face, inflicted last Saturday by some person, unknown, she will be called upon to explain why she played "hooky."

Then too, the police are interested in the acid throwing, which occurred while Frances was asleep. Detectives are inclined to the jealousy theory, but admit thus far they have been unable to find trace of any one who out of spite, might have attempted to mar the girl's beauty because of her friendship with the 57-year-old real-estate operator.

A third investigation is in the hands of the society for the prevention of cruelty to children, which is interested in the motives behind Browning's interest in Frances. In fact Vincent Pisarra, secretary of the society, waxed indignant as he discussed the case.

"If a grey-haired man more than 50 years old," commented Pisarra, "takes a little school girl out for night rides in a Rolls-Royce and takes her to dances, all this with- out a proper guardian, it is time that something should be done about it."

"What is it that induces a man of his age to describe a little girl's hair, her eyes and her figure? At least he is indiscreet."

Pisarra, also intends to inquire into the high school sorority of Phi Lambda Tau, of which Browning was a patron and Miss Heenan a member.

Other developments of the newest "Cinderella" follow: It was learned Browning had taken the girl to a birthday party for Benjamin Gligi, Metropolitan Opera tenor, on March 29, and had taken her home alone.

William Heenan, the girl's father, an automobile salesman, told newspapermen if Browning intended to marry Frances there would be no parental objection.

Mary Louise Spas, Frances' predecessor in the realtor's attentions, said she was going to bring "some kind of suit" against the man who once adopted her and gave her $11,000 until he found that she was twenty-one years old, and her lawyers verified the announcement.

NEW YORK.—Apparently valuing the symmetry of her legs at $100,000 an inch, Mrs. Elizabeth Gomez sued William J. Wilkinson for $50,000 alleging that because Wilkinson caused her to fall at a dance one leg will be permanently a half inch shorter than the other.

NEW YORK.—Another Vanderbilt was driven off Fifth Avenue when the encroaching business and apartment houses forced Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt II, to seek a new home on Park Avenue.

LONDON.—Woman's fashions are improving the health of Great Britain's women, according to Dr. C. W. Paget Moffatt, medical officer for Bolton.

"The girls of Bolton have shared to the full in this improvement," he said. "I attribute much of the improvement in their health to their lighter clothing."

THIRTEEN HOLDS NO ERRORS FOR COACH PRUGH'S ATHLETES

Number thirteen has no terrors at Antioch College. The school is busily preparing for its annual basketball season. Thirteen men are on the team and seven on the bench. The team is on the schedule which ends Saturday with Miami University at Yellow Springs and ends on April 16 with Capital University at Columbus. Coach Earl E. Prugh will be obliged to draw upon two distinct divisions of the team. The "A" team is in training because of the cooperative plan of "five weeks school and five weeks work" in effect at Antioch. The "B" group with nine letter men turning to uniform, will open the season playing the first three games on the road. Dawson and MacLean are the veteran pointmen. With five regulars and a 300 game record, the athletic director has high hopes for a successful season. The "A" division students, returning to college for five weeks beginning April 21, will continue their schedule until May 24, when the "B" men come back to complete the schedule. The "A" squad contains five letter men from last year including Captain Dan Moore. The schedule follows: April 12—Wilberforce at Antioch. April 14—Dayton University at Dayton. April 15—Wilberforce at Antioch. April 18—St. Xavier at Antioch. May 5—Miami at Oxford. May 6—Cedarville at Antioch. May 12—Dayton at Antioch. May 15—Cedarville at Cedarville. May 15—St. Xavier at Cincinnati. May 19—Otterbein at Western.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

MARY WAITE shares two rooms with CELIA STEWART, and works as a stenographer and general assistant in the office of STANLEY BLAKE. Mary has few friends, but Celia goes out frequently in the evening, though she does not tell with whom. Mary finds that Celia and Stanley see each other frequently, although Stanley is married. Mary goes to supper with PAT HAMILTON, whom she has met before but whose attention she has refused because he is married, and sees Celia and Stanley at another table. Mrs. Blake learns that Stanley is going around with some girl, and thinks it is Mary. She telephones Mary, threatening to make trouble unless Mary leaves town at once. Celia disappears. Mary sees Hamilton again, and he arranges for her to go to New York and work for a friend of his. Mary goes to work in New York for MR. CRANDALL, a wealthy old man, and meets his son WILL CRANDALL, who is very nice to her. She motors into the country with Will on Saturday afternoon, and they are stranded on a back road when the car runs out of gas.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XXXVI—NEW HAPPINESS

EVEN being engaged to Will Crandall could not bring Mary perfect happiness. When she thought of the money that she owed Pat Hamilton, and realized that she was not earning anything, and that she must pay him before she married Will, she hardly knew what to do. If only she could have told Will about it! But after the way he had spoken about Hamilton, telling her that Hamilton was not the kind of man she ought to know, she did not dare do so. "Oh, I'll get work somehow, somewhere," she told herself. "There'll be some way." She did get a position, that day, as stenographer in the office of a firm of wholesale grocers. Mr. Crandall had said her remarkably well, she got less in the new position, and the work was hard, but she was too glad to have the position to find any fault with it. She was reading the classified ads in a paper that afternoon when she found one that strongly appealed to her. A big dance pavilion was advertising for girls to act as partners and instructors; a small salary was paid, and a commission, so that if a girl was popular she could earn as much as thirty dollars a week. Mary wondered if it would not be possible for her to work there evenings. With what she earned during the day, she would be able to pay Hamilton much more quickly than otherwise. And yet—how could she keep Will from knowing about it? He would expect to see her evenings. The excuse that she had to earn more money would not seem adequate to him. She was very much worried when she saw him at dinner that evening. He was worried also. "I might as well tell you the truth, dear," he said. "I told Mother and Dad today that we're going to be married, and Mother—well, I wouldn't have believed that she could act as she did. She simply raved. She's expected that I'd marry somebody like one of the Hewitt girls, you see, and now—well, she said she wouldn't leave me a cent, and Dad said he wouldn't—so if I didn't have what my grandmother left me we'd be in quite a hole. As it is I haven't got much, but it's enough for us to live on. I could get a job of some kind, selling bonds or something—I know a lot of men who'd give me

As soon as she saw Jim Crandall's wife Mary liked her. Young Mrs. Crandall was very beautiful, with black hair and dark blue eyes, and she came to welcome Mary with her young son in her arms. Mary followed her up to a guest-room, and later joined her in the nursery. The baby, who was playing on the floor, held out his arms to Mary. "Isn't he a darling!" she exclaimed. "Why, he looks like Will!" Mrs. Crandall laughed softly. "I think he looks like Jim," she answered. "I suppose it's a family resemblance that they all share. Now, tell me, when are you going to be married? Will says very soon. And since you're living alone, won't you be married here, in our home? Jim and I would like it so much." Mary was overwhelmed. "Oh, you are so kind to me," she cried. "I—I don't know what to say." "Don't say anything," Virginia Crandall answered. "I've been a girl who was all alone in the world; I know what it's like."

IGNORANCE GIVES COURAGE SAYS DENTIST ADDRESSING DOCTORS

"No one thing gives courage like ignorance," declared Dr. Weston A. Price, Cleveland, dental specialist, in his address before the five-county medical meeting, entertained by the Greene County Medical Society, at Elks' Club, this city, Thursday.
Dr. Price spoke on "Focal Infection" and his talk included the following remarks: "Infection takes place when a tissue gets into such condition that the organism can grow. The number of deaths due to heart trouble is on an increase while those due to tuberculosis is decreasing. There are ten times as many deaths caused by heart trouble as by tuberculosis.

"Low tuberculosis death rate is due to the development of a public conscience and a regard for prevention. Prevention of heart disease is not yet a matter of public science," the physician declared. "It is up to the medical and dental profession to develop this conscience," he told his audience.
"In rural communities where no root canal filling is done, deaths from heart trouble are much lower. Intelligence is developing in recognizing that teeth are infected or become infected after treatment and organisms which give little inconvenience in the mouth may be a source of great discomfort when transmitted to tissue in another part of the body, which is suitable for their growth," he explained.

Dr. Price gave cases, illustrating the point in that patients with anemia, paralysis, neuritis, recurrent nervous attacks, wry neck, hemorrhages from gums, stomach ulcers, nephritis, rheumatism, ovarian cysts, insanity, chronic hay fever, have been benefited by the extraction of infected teeth, and that the same disease were produced in rabbits inoculated with pus from bad teeth as the patient from whom it was taken.

"Some patients refuse treatment advised," saying that they will take responsibility of the consequences," Dr. Price said and asked the question, "should we let patients take such responsibility when he is ignorant of the conditions? The only way to completely cure the diseases caused by diseased teeth is by removing bad teeth before the disease occurs," he concluded.

MULLINS CASE IS FINALLY DISMISSED

Charges of illegal possession of liquor against Theodore Mullins, 17, of near Osborn, were dismissed by Prosecuting Attorney J. Carl Marshall at his hearing before R. O. Cospey, justice of the peace, Friday afternoon because of insufficient evidence.

Evidence was not conclusive enough to warrant a hearing of the case, the prosecutor said.

Hearing aroused interest in Xenia because Mullins recently swore out warrants for the arrest of Constables Earl Severs and J. W. Sidwell, Van Bureau Twp., Montgomery County and J. E. Watts, state prohibition inspector for shooting with intent to wound. Mullins' arrest followed shortly afterward on an affidavit filed by John Powell, state prohibition officer as a result of a liquor raid on the former's home in February. He pleaded not guilty and his hearing was delayed by three postponements.

CRESWELL ENDORSED FOR STATE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

P. H. CRESWELL
Paul H. Creswell, this city, Republican state central committee man from the Seventh Congressional District announced Friday his intention of becoming a candidate for re-election to a second term.
Elected two years ago, he has served one term, which expires this year. His election marked the first time in twenty-three years Greene County has had a representative on the Republican state central committee.

He was endorsed to succeed himself as a member of the state committee by the Clark County Republican executive committee Thursday, receiving official notice of the committee's action the same day.

Endorsement for Mr. Creswell by the Clark County Republican Committee is a good omen and many prominent Republicans over the district urge support of his candidacy for committee man. He is a World War veteran, serving in the Italian air service overseas and has since been deputy auditor of Greene County. He is former clerk of the board of elections and former officer of Joseph P. Foody Post No. 95, American Legion.

MARSHAL'S CASE TO BE TRIED APRIL 6 HERE IS ANNOUNCED

The $5,000 damage suit brought by Marshal W. A. Schneider, Osborn, against Constable Sidney M.

Corellus, of Bath Twp., as a result of personal injuries alleged to have been sustained during trouble between the two officers on election day, November 3, 1935, will be given a jury trial in Common Pleas Court on April 6.

The constable placed Marshal Schneider under arrest after knocking him down, on a charge of resisting an officer when he is alleged to have interfered with his arrest of two men for intoxication during the election day hilarity.

The marshal immediately filed charges against Constable Corellus and his two sons, Otto and Grant, for carrying concealed weapons, assault and pointing firearms, following this with the damage suit.

The marshal was later acquitted by a jury of charges of resisting an officer and the grand jury ignored cases against the Corellus family.

LET'S WAIT

THERE'S a drive on at Washington for a complete nationalization of our education and many earnest seekers of uplift are getting themselves pretty excited about it.

The idea is sound—but are we men enough to make it work?

In the last few years, we've passed the buck to the federal government in many things—most of which are just as sound theoretically, as the nationalization of education. But we haven't worked them all out yet. And in some of them, it begins to look as if we didn't have brains enough to work them out.

There is no question as to the efficiency of centralization—provided we have the men that can properly direct the centralized power. But this is a vast country with many conflicting and complicated problems. And it is just possible that we have grown faster in the size and complexity of our national problems than we have been able to develop men to meet them.

The federal government is still far from having completely digested and mastered the jobs we have already handed it. Unless more rapid progress is made in the next few years, we may even have to take back some of the things we passed to Washington—good as the idea may have seemed originally. In the mean-time, let's don't pile anything more over there—no matter how practical the plan may appear on paper. And before we ever send anything further over, let's be sure first that we have men and an organization capable of handling the complicated national problem better from Washington than it can be handled by possibly lesser men with nothing but a local phase to settle.

This is not aimed particularly at the educational problem. It applies equally well to road building, national marriage and divorce legislation, child labor regulation, labor problems generally etc., etc.

Certainly certain things could be gained through national standardization of some phases of teaching. But much of this can be accomplished through national organizations, meetings and conferences without flirting with the danger of establishing another lazy, tax-eating, easy-chair bureaucracy on the banks of the Potomac.

Let us send Skinner and Keppel to their national conferences and let them bring back to us the best of the modern thought of the country. And let us use of it what we can and what we can afford.

And let us look forward to the time when we can have a competent, efficient national control.

But let's keep looking forward to it for some time yet.

THE SPUR OF PROGRESS

AUTOMOBILES have set people to traveling, mathematicians to figuring, economists to thinking, millions in hoarded money and thousands of men and women to working.

John Hopkins University professor anticipates 51,000,000 automobiles in the United States in 1975, and the bureau of industrial technology estimates the American people last year spent $14,293,000,000 for motor vehicles and their maintenance and operation. Automobiles and motor trucks sold last year had an aggregate value of $3,750,000,000, and the depreciation in value last year of all motor vehicles in operation in this country is placed at the amazing sum of $2,500,000,000.

The department of commerce at Washington has compiled statistics showing 19,999,436 motor vehicles registered in the United States last year, an increase of 3,278,000 over the preceding year. The rest of the world has only 5,974,492 passenger and commercial machines.

Last year saw the automobile industry become the nation's largest industry and pass agriculture in the value of its products. In 1925 the American people gave to the automobile industry $2,000,000 more than they paid for their food.

But is this vast and growing expenditure on this one means of transportation and pleasure necessarily inordinate and economically dangerous? Or is it, as the bureau of industrial technology states, "the most important factor, both from an economic and social standpoint, in modern life?" Without the automobile and its great popularity what would the nation do with the millions of men and women employed and the fabulous quantities of materials consumed by the industry? How much of the popularity of suburban life is due to the automobile? Would the farmers have eventually built for themselves the improved roads now being constructed mainly by motor vehicle owners at a cost of $1,000,000,000 a year? Could the country get along again without this gigantic industry and did it get along as well before it had it?

DISHES IN THE WEEK-END MENUS

The following dishes will be called for tomorrow and Sunday in my menus:

Swiss Steak: Buy two and one-half pounds of round steak cut two inches thick. Rub about three-quarters of a cup of bread-flour into this, then seal the meat on both sides in a frying pan in bacon fat. Now place it in a baking dish or casserole; barely cover it with boiling water and add one cup of the more liquid part of a can of tomatoes. Peel and quarter eight medium-sized onions and place these around the meat in the casserole. Add one teaspoon of salt, a pinch of pepper, and let bake in a medium oven, covered, for two and one-half hours. Then serve very hot.

Strawberry-Pineapple Salad: Hull ripe strawberries, cut each berry in half, and measure. To one cupful of the halved berries add three-quarters of a cup of diced pineapple. Heap the fruit mixture on crisp lettuce, top with marshmallow, and serve without dressing.

Almond Pudding: To make this, buy from a bakery shop a few lady fingers and macaroons. Crush six of each in a bowl and add one cupful of scalded sweet milk; let stand several minutes.

per, till soft. Then stir in three tablespoons of flour, one-half teaspoon of salt, the desired amount of pepper, and a pinch of nutmeg. Also add eight hard-boiled eggs sliced, stirring constantly. Set the boiler-top over rapidly boiling water and let cook (still stirring) for three or four minutes, or till well heated through. Serve at once on buttered toast. This recipe may seem a little extravagant—calling for so many eggs—but I assume that Easter Evening will find a guest in many homes and for these special occasions one generally serves delicacies. ## Itching, painful rash on hand yields to Resinol

Huntington, L. I., N. Y., Dec. 20: "I want to tell you what your Resinol Ointment has done for me. Some time ago, I had a red, scaly rash between my fingers that came from using too much harsh soap and soap powder. It itched badly, especially at night. I am a housekeeper and every time I had to put my hands in water the pain was intense. One evening I read a Resinol advertisement in the paper and decided to buy a jar. I did and after I had used it for about two months, my trouble was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. Ward Chapman, R. F. D. No. 1, c/o G. G. James.

CEDARVILLE

Village of Cedarville has a history extending back more than 100 years, a history replete with the incidents which cluster about any community in existence for a century.

Cedarville claims at least two men of national renown, one of whom became a man of international reputation.

The name of Whitelaw Reid stands high on the roll of American journalists and diplomats. Another illustrious son of the village, who has achieved fame as a journalist and poet, is Wilbur "Dick" Nesbit. These two men are only a part of the contribution of this village to the world but they have brought it more fame than any others.

History of a community of this size is much like that of thousands of other villages in the country. It began in a humble way, with its rude log cabins, unkempt streets, meager business enterprises and general air of humility, but with the passing years it kept pace with the development of other towns until it became a thriving village.

Platted June 29, 1816 by Jesse Newport and William Newport, it was known by the name of Milford until 1834.

The village was given a postoffice in 1834 and because of the presence of another village in Ohio by the same name, it was necessary to seek a new one.

After careful consideration the name of Cedarville was selected—sixteen years before Cedarville Twp. came into existence. Banks of Massies Creek were lined with cedar trees, a fact that was responsible for choosing that name.

Original plat shows not much was thought of the future possibilities of the town since only twenty-four lots were platted. Fifteen lots were south of Chillicothe St., and nine were north of it. It was twenty years before the village grew to a point making an addition to the plat necessary. Since 1836 there have been about seventeen additions to the town.

JESUS, MY FRIEND

I spent last night reading the book that my friend Bruce Barton wrote a little while ago which he called "The Man Nobody Knows."

I liked this book because he brought Jesus into my room and I was very happy with Him. I felt that this Jesus knew and understood my problems and that He didn't drop in to find fault with my many faults.

I felt like Zacchaeus must have felt when he heard that Jesus was to pass through his town, and because he was so small in stature, he climbed a tree and waited till the famous man came along. And when He did come along, He looked up into the tree and said something in the spirit of these words: "What are you doing up there, Zacchaeus? Come on down. I have heard a great deal about you and I want to take dinner with you at your house tonight!"

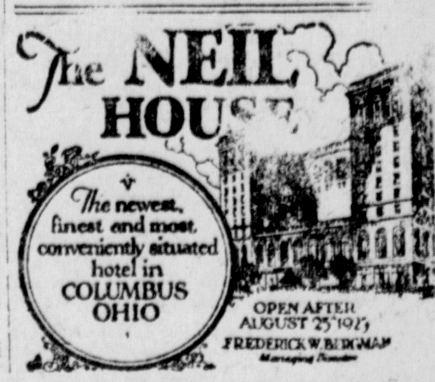

How thrilled this business man must have been. You see the thing that made him get up into the tree was that he believed that there was something very great about Jesus and he was determined to find out what it was. Immediately the folks about Jesus ran up to Him and whispered to Him that that fellow was not the kind for Him to see or to talk to and that it would hurt His reputation to go to his house. But Jesus went.

Jesus picked His friends from those who needed Him.

That's why I have always liked Jesus. I am sure that had I lived when He did, I would have wanted to see Him and talk with Him. And I know that He would have been glad to see me. I wouldn't have been embarrassed in talking to Him either, I am sure.

Bruce Barton and I have often talked about this Jesus over a luncheon table. I can't understand why He isn't talked about more. A character so sweet, so strong, so magnetic, so real, so human. I wish more people would write books about Jesus as Bruce Barton has. All of our problems, personal, national, and worldwide, would be better solved if we knew Jesus better and loved Him more.

The most puzzling problem clears itself, standardized by the love, common sense and vision of this Jesus, whom nearly every body has heard about, but whom so few really know.

MC'DISH MITZI—Only The Goofer Knows What's Wrong BY J. V. JAY

The lady may be beautiful. She may be attractive. She may be wearing a gown of lace that has come straight from Paris. The Goofer will never know any of those things. As unobtrusively as he can he is looking for Mitzi. (Will not notice that the lady's scarf is of lace to match her dress?)

There seem to be plenty of young women about. The one to the left wears a robe de style of black lace with the upper part of the bodice and the lower part of the skirt of chiffon. The one to the right shows how effectively the straightline evening gown can be made from lace, too.

Neither of these is Mitzi although each is wearing a gown that one might expect Mitzi to wear. Both are also of lace which has achieved a tremendous popularity for new summer frocks both for afternoon and evening. The dress on the right uses it combined with silk net.

It won't give the Goofer much pleasure. He does find Mitzi. He will reflect bitterly on the leanness of men who are able to impress the father with their brains and the daughter with their dancing. There has, of course, never been any question about the Goofer's dancing!

IN SPIKE OF THE CYNIC

The scoffers for years have been at it. And the cynics for ages have sneered. The clever and smart have all thought it was "art." To belittle what others revered; But still this old world goes on plodding along. With the old-fashioned virtues still sturdy and strong.

They've been at it for ages and ages. With philosophies vicious and base. But the stuff that they teach, and the stuff that they preach. Doesn't comfort or hearten the race.

And the old world continues to jog right along. With its old-fashioned notions of right and of wrong.

Had there been any truth in their wisdom. Had their fibes been as honest as smart. Every virtue we've kept they'd have long ago swept. From the land and the home and the heart.

But the old world continues to plod right along. With its old-fashioned faith and its old-fashioned song.

In spite of the wit of the scoffer. The many rejoice in their lives. You will find everywhere, women noble and fair. And men who are true to their wives. And the old world continues to march right along. Though the cynic insists that his ways are all wrong.

WILBERFORCE WILL OPEN DIAMOND YEAR WITH CEDARVILLE 9

A rather stiff chart of twelve games has been drawn up for the Wilberforce University diamond nine this season, eight at home and four abroad.

Wilberforce will open its schedule April 12 with Cedarville College playing at Wilberforce, and close June 10 with Muskingum College at New Concord, O.

H. C. Graves, of the Michigan Agricultural College, will again coach the squad this year and optimism reigns in the university camp.

Five or six letter men are back from last year and everything points to a successful campaign. Material is available for almost every position but filling places in the infield, the first line of defense, is expected to give the most trouble. The present battery leaves nothing to be desired.

Schedule follows:

April 12—Cedarville College at Wilberforce.

April 13—Antioch at Antioch.

April 24—Cedarville at Cedarville.

May 3—Antioch at Wilberforce.

May 10—Bluefield, W. Va., at Wilberforce.

May 16—West Virginia Military Institute at Wilberforce.

May 17—West Virginia Military Institute at Wilberforce.

May 23—Capital University at Wilberforce.

May 31—Wilmington at Wilberforce.

June 5—Capital at Columbus.

June 7—Muskingum at Wilberforce.

June 10—Muskingum at New Concord, O.

DIAMOND CHANGES ARE NOT BRILLIANT

Not much more than a glimmer of hope is held out for good baseball prospects at Cedarville College this spring.

The diamond sport never did enjoy wide popularity at Cedarville and baseball nines have never set the world afire there.

Neither is unusual interest being manifest this spring as chances of a successful season are no brighter than usual.

A few games have already been booked for this spring. The nine will engage Antioch at Yellow Springs May 6 and play a return game at Cedarville May 13. Two contests are also understood to have been arranged with the University of Dayton, Wilberforce University, and Wilmington College by Coach Tuttle.

A number of letter men of last year will return to uniform this spring and this is considered a hopeful sign of a more promising season. Last season's nine was, however, not out of the ordinary.

Pure Milk Means
Healthy Babies!

Pure Milk Is Essential In the Proper Development Of Children

The most important thing in the world for the baby is raw milk. It is the perfect raw material out of which he builds body, bone and sinew, the brain and heart and hand which will serve him through all the years to come. It is the one that gives him everything he needs.

MISS NEVILLE OF THE GAZETTE REPUBLICAN

is enthusiastic in her praise of the high quality of all our dairy products which have been used exclusively during four days of the school.

Our products are always the same—always the best.

Thousands of babies have grown to sturdy maturity on Dairy Products Standard Milk and Special Baby Milk.

The Special Baby Milk is milk from a herd of tuberculin-tested Jersey cows. These cows are magnificent animals, big and vital, and their milk is endowed by nature with a peculiar power to make baby's body grow. Dairy Products Special Baby Milk is worth its extra cost.

Mothers! Protect Your Children

Milk builds sturdy bodies, ruddy with the glow of health. It fosters growth. It builds red blood, strong bones, lusty sinews. It gives stamina for play, and for the serious tasks of school days.

It is the sacred right of your children to be as strong and healthy as science and knowledge can make them. Give them milk! There is nothing can take its place. Nothing ever has. Nothing ever will.

TOILOTRELEU! BOASTING A BIT!

It's real evidence of civilization when the "nicer things" come into general use. Certainly this applies tightly to the Toilettes Counter of ours, for every day, every week, every YEAR we have seen it grow in popularity and in SIZE! No goods in our entire store are more carefully selected than these and we try hard to keep step with "concoits that are new!"

PLAIN R-U-I-N!

The human being who neglects the habit of thorough elimination is no more foolish than the person who drinks himself to death! The only difference is that the latter has a bit more fun out of HIS death than the first! Hard drinking and constipation are DANGEROUS. We mention this because we want to have you TRY JUST ONCE Rexall's Orderlies, a non-habit forming NATURAL bowel regulator.

INSIDIOUS! PERSISTENT!

"Kidney Trouble" may for months and years be hiding away in your system getting a real strong foothold, ready to hop on you strong when it thinks the time is ripe. At the FIRST flare you should take a limited treatment of Rexall Kidney Compound which we believe will quiet this ailment for keeps. Cosas 0c and $1.0.

Touchin' Up Things!

A lot of new ideas have been put out by paint manufacturers lately in "finishes." One of the keenest is Parakeet, which goes on easily, dries quickly, is fool-proof, comes in 9 colors and in general is quite entirely RIGHT for use by amateur painters, who want to fix up a few things around the house. Sells for $1.00 a pint!

Nothing so truly exemplifies the spirit of Easter as the exquisite spring flowers; so we will decorate our luncheon table with them. Miniature hat boxes at each place may be filled with nuts and candies or the ices may be served in this form.

Britain in Flurry Over Better Aircraft Guns of U. S.

Britain is in a flurry over a belated discovery of the fact that the U. S. is now equipping its newer dreadnaughts with long range five-inch guns capable of attacking aircraft six miles overhead. U. S. S. West Virginia carries them already, and others are to be put aboard Maryland and Colorado and the aircraft carriers Lexington and Saratoga, now nearing completion. The guns are the most powerful of their type in the world. Photo shows forward gun turret of the West Virginia.

Movies Save Three Families From Death in Blast

In Braddock, Pa., while the families of three houses were at a nearby movie theater, an explosion which police lay to a bomb, wrecked the homes. Fire followed and $25,000 damage was done. Had the blast occurred a short time earlier a score of persons might have been killed.

Second "Gold Rush" on in Colorado

Colorado is witnessing a second "gold rush" comparable with that of a half a century ago. This time "liquid gold" is the lure. Rich oil strikes near Fort Collins have made that district a new mecca for prospectors, with a rush for claims. Photo shows some of the derricks which are springing up rapidly.

Churches Use Jazz Music to Pep Up Services

Jazz is gaining a foothold in religion. Wilshire Congregational church, Los Angeles, is one of many following the lead of Chelsea M. E. church, New York, in making jazz numbers a part of the services. "Modernism and pep must be injected into the religion of today to make it attractive to insurgent youth," explains Rev. Frank Dyer of the Los Angeles congregation. Photo shows jazz orchestra installed in place of choir in the Chelsea church.

Fire Makes Hundreds Homeless in Newport, Ark.

Outside aid is being given Newport, Ark., in housing the persons made homeless when 279 buildings were reduced to ruins by a fire that virtually wiped out the residential district. The loss is estimated at more than $1,500,000. William Ruffer, Jr., 20, is a local hero because he tore off restraining hands, dashed into a flaming house and rescued "Fox," pet dog trapped inside. "I couldn't stand to hear him whine—he's been my buddy for 14 years," says Ruffer, who is shown in the inset.

MINISTER HEARD AT HOLY WEEK SERVICE

Holy Week services of the First Presbyterian Church were led Thursday evening by the Rev. M. Bert Koonce, South Charleston, who preached using John 8:12 as text, "I am the light of the world."

The speaker introduced his message with a resume of the efforts he is putting forth to obtain light on every known subject, scientific, philosophic, psychic and material. He commended the efforts to seek light but proved that no amount of such knowledge will ever reveal the Eternal God to any one.

"We do not approach the spiritual through the material," he said. "Spiritual light can be obtained by contact with the 'light of the world' and that contact is through the spiritual capacities intuned with the infinite sources of spiritual light. Do the will of God and you will know the doctrine or have light. Inner light comes to the soul through Jesus Christ, when we are willing to do the 'will of God,'" the speaker continued.

He closed with an illustration of great musicians playing upon an organ and making the instrument give out its hidden music and tones appealing to all present to follow the Master of Life to bring out the hidden harmonies of our own lives.

Miss Zeila Sward sang "Fair-est Lord Jesus." Last service of the week will be held Friday evening at 7:30, when the Lord's Supper will be administered. The pastor, the Rev. W. H. Tilford, will be in charge of this service. Token cards have been sent to all resident members and these will be given in tonight at the service by those who attend.

Mrs. A. V. Perill will sing "The Old Rugged Cross."

The Theatre

"The Black Crook," immortal melodrama, is scheduled to be presented at the Opera House.

Billy Fletcher, unable to eat his evening meal because of the thrill, arrives at the theater early to light the coal oil lamps that serve as footlights at the edge of the stage.

The company eventually straggles in and Harry Clark, the mail carrier, takes his usual seat in the audience. A crowd that fills the theater sits spellbound through "The Black Crook". Or maybe it was "Hearts Adrift" or one of the other vehicles which were the boon of the repertoire companies.

But some day I want to write the story of the Opera House so that it will live again, on the printed page if not in actuality, its glory of the past.

DAMAGE SUIT ENDS WITH SETTLEMENT

Jury trial of the $5,000 damage suit of George Lea against N. Ebner and Oscar Werber, doing business as the "Xenia Fertilizer Co." in Common Pleas Court Thursday, came to a sudden end when a compromise was effected by joint agreement of both parties, under which the defendants settled for $500.

Settlement came while the trial was in progress at the conclusion of introduction of evidence by the plaintiff.

Complainant in his suit, alleged he received permanent injuries in the form of a head injury, numerous bruises and sprains, when he was thrown from his buggy after the equipage was struck by a truck driven by an employee of the defendant company on E. Second St., October 22, 1925.

He claimed damage to the buggy, amounted to $35 and that medical

Ethel Paxson has brought suit for divorce from Charles Paxson in Common Pleas Court on grounds of extreme cruelty and infidelity. The couple was married September 2, 1916 and has one child, Yvonne, aged 5.

Plaintiff seeks to be decreed alimony and custody of the child and asks that a temporary injunction be granted by the court restraining her husband from disposing of stock he owns in the Sabina Auto Inn.

RAILROAD PLANS TO INSTALL SIGNAL AT CROSSING AT SELMA

As an echo of the crossing accident at Selma, January 23, 1926, in which Floyd Thorne, Cedarville, was almost instantly killed when his truck was struck by a Pennsylvania train, R. C. Barnard, superintendent of the Cincinnati division of the railroad, is understood to have made an offer to Clark County Commissioners to protect the crossing by installation of two flash signals, one each side of the tracks.

Under the terms of the offer, the company may erect the automatic lights on seven-foot standards. Cost of the lights is estimated at $2,000. It is proposed the commissioner and railroad shall share the expense equally.

Proposition was taken under consideration and referred to W. H. Seiverling, Clark County surveyor. Decision is expected within a week.

A suit is now pending in Com-

road for $50,000 damages as a result of Thorne's death. Action was filed by his widow, Mrs. Helen Thorne, as administrator of the estate.

It is claimed the crossing is dangerous and unprotected. Clear view of the tracks is also blocked it is alleged.

They Built New Strength By Taking

Father John's Medicine

Bernard and James Quinn of 8 Magnolia Ave., Cambridge, Mass., had the whooping cough and lost considerable weight and strength. Their mother Mrs. James Quinn says: "I gave my boys Father John's Medicine and the benefit obtained surpassed our hopes. The coughing stopped, they began to eat better and regained the flesh and strength they had lost. I certainly do recommend Father John's Medicine to all families."

Inset in the circle is Marguerite, daughter of Mrs. A. T. Gonyer, of Orono, Maine. Mrs. Gonyer writes: "Marguerite had been rather thin and pale when we began giving Father John's Medicine. Since taking it she has grown well and strong and her vitality has returned. I urgently recommend Father John's Medicine to other mothers who wish to build up a run down child."

In millions of homes, from coast to coast, Father John's Medicine is the family medicine for body building—the tonic that old or young may safely take to build new health and strength—because it contains no drugs and has had over 60 years of success.

SPRING SERMON THURSDAY FIRST M. E. CHURCH

Largest attendance for the service was noted. Sunday of "Passion Week" will be held at First M. E. Church, Sunday morning, 10:30 a. m. The service will be held at the church, and not permitted to take of the festivities of Jesus and His disciples. It was willingly given for this feast, it was prepared. So ought hearts be, that Christ may be in and commune with us. Events of that upper room sacred night teach us all the lesson of humility, the nature of communion in the act of the Supper and the promise to be found in the promise of the Holy Communion.

Service will be held at 6 o'clock in the Sunday School room of the church, sponsored by the Epworth League. Mrs. I. W. Clouse will have charge of this service. Invitations are extended to persons of the church. A large class of new members is expected to be received Sunday morning. The choir will render special music at 7:30 in the evening.

of long standing

Mr. Charles R. Pollard, of Walworth, Wisconsin, will testify that habit-forming pills and drugs were even worse than useless in relieving his constipation.

"I am writing to tell you of the great results I have received from using your Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Before I commenced using your ALL-BRAN food I was obliged to take a laxative every night, and being a ruptured man aggravated this trouble and made it all worse. But since using your ALL-BRAN I have laid all my laxative medicine and pills away and my bowels are as regular as a clock."

Walworth, Wisconsin.
Don't let constipation drag you down, and don't become a slave to habit-forming pills and drugs. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, eaten regularly, is guaranteed to relieve constipation or your money is returned, because it is 100% bran. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. ## BOTTOMLESS PIT OFFERS PROBLEM

RITTMAR, O., April 2—More than a thousand carloads of gravel and timber have been used in an effort to fill the "Bottomless" pit on the Baltimore and Ohio right-of-way through here.

The best engineers in the country have been employed to devise means of filling the cave-in. Investigations prove that the ground sinks at a rate of two feet, five inches every five minutes, while the land in a radius of five acres around the sink has raised at least six feet, engineers say.

When the Centennial Exhibition was held in Philadelphia in 1876, Lydia E. Pinkham, a woman in Lynn, Mass., was just beginning to market her root and herb medicine. Her first large order was eighteen dollars worth.

Philadelphia is now celebrating the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. In Lynn the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company occupies six buildings in the manufacture.

Nearly 5,000,000 bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound were sold last year.

AMERICA'S MOST FAMOUS DESSERT

Is your husband "particular" about desserts? Most men are, and they like variety too. That's why Jell-O is a popular dessert among men, for it is healthfully sweet and can be served plain or with fruit, nuts and whipped cream.

In addition Jell-O is readily digested (and that as your know helps his disposition.) Serve Jell-O for supper tonight and see how pleased he will be.

FARMERS HAD MORE
GRAIN THIS YEAR

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—Ohio farmers had over three times as much corn in their cribs and 40 percent more oats in their granaries on March 1 of this year than on March 1, 1925, figures compiled by rural economists show.

Corn on Ohio farms March 1, totaled 88,968,000 bushels, as compared with 24,985,000 bushels a year ago and an average of 58,279,000 bushels on farms March 1, for the period 1921-25. Oats on Ohio farms totaled 34,545,000 bushels March 1, as compared with 24,575,000 bushels a year ago, and an average of 20,276,000 bushels on farms March 1 for the period 1921-25.

Corn prices have been in inverse proportion to the stock on farms in March, one of the economists, W. J. Utz, pointed out.

New-Day
Performance
more than just Speed, enabled

The New-Day
JEWETT SIX to smash all records
in the Detroit-Chicago run!

THINK of it! From the center of Detroit to the center of Chicago in the phenomenal time of 6 hours and 5 minutes, elapsed time! Thirty-five minutes faster than the fastest time ever made by the famous "Wolverine"—crack Michigan Central train!

Shattered at last is the record that has been shot at for years by the best drivers in the biggest and fastest cars! And by a stock car—driven by a non-professional driver—over icy, slippery roads.

The New-Day Jewett accomplished this tremendous feat—not so much because of great speed, but rather because of its remarkable ease of handling, its quickness to stop with Paige-Hydraulic 4-wheel brakes, its lightning-like acceleration, its wonderful roadability—and adaptability!

Because, in short, of all those exclusive features that so clearly and unmistakably establish it a "New-Day" car!

Coming quick on the heels of the first announcement of this New-Day car—this amazing record establishes beyond all doubt not only the superior new performance of this New-Day Jewett Six—but its superior stamina and strength as well.

You may never need or want the great speed of The New-Day Jewett Six. But you do need and want its "New-Day" performance—its ability to get you through traffic or across country in less time, with less effort, with no inconvenience or annoyances of any kind.

You can see and drive an exact duplicate of this record-breaking car at our showroom. Come in—and drive one soon!
